

Jew, Catholic, Protestant To Improve Marriage What Is Happiness? Wise Young Dinohaur

Calvin Coolidge, Governor Smith and the distinguished philanthropist, Julius Rosenwald are selected to dispose of an $8,000,000 charity fund left by Conrad Hubert.

The man who left the money wanted it distributed 'by one Jew, one Protestant and one Catholic.'

No better choice could have been made than Coolidge, Smith and Rosenwald.

But why Jew, Protestant, Catholic? Why not three good, average Americans, regardless of their religious brand?

There is too much emphasizing of 'Jew, Protestant, Catholic,' too much dividing of political offices among them.

That wasn't the idea of the men that established this country.

Great Britain proposes to bar from marriage the 'mentally unfit.' That might improve the human race, if you could identify the mentally unfit with certainty.

Some unfit will be exempt from matrimonial ostracism because they possess fortunes or important titles or names.

Others mentally unfit will escape because they are only dull, belonging to the negative class that Dante put into one of hell's disagreeable compartments.

The Rev. C. Everett Wagner, Methodist Episcopal, will start a 'happiness clinic' with philosophers engaged to lecture on happiness, how to start, how to reach it. The clinic will pay especial attention to marriage, health, work and human nature.

In starting a 'happiness clinic' it is important to remember Voltaire's advice to define the meaning of words.

What is happiness?

Sheridan calls it 'an exotic of celestial birth.'

Socrates said, 'Happiness is unrepented pleasure.'

Schopenhauer called happiness 'absence of pain'—a dull definition.

Rousseau's definition, 'A good bank account, a good cook, and a good digestion,' is also rather dull.

Schiller thought he had found 'earthly happiness' because he had 'lived and loved.'

There are two kinds of happiness. The lesser consists in finding the work for which you are fit and doing it.

The greater, reserved for a few, is working for others.

Samuel Insull, Jr., following in his father's industrial dinosaur tracks, as president of the Midland United Company of Chicago, tells the American Gas association that to boom the gas industry and increase sales they must cut prices, and use 'persuasive advertising and proper salesmanship.'

If young Mr. Insull follows out those ideas he will be a big industrial dinosaur some day.

Mr. Lamont, 'the' Mr. Lamont, says business is good and will continue good. Gerald Swope, president of General Electric, says 'Amen!' and means it. Orders received by his company for the three months ending September 30 were $116,688,014, against $90,328,666 in the same period last year. That increase of 29 per cent has prevailed throughout the entire year.

Viscount Aquilar, physician to King Alfonso of Spain, tells Chicago that the King 'is in beautiful health because he has never been a man of regular habits.'

He means that King Alfonso does not confine himself to any particular diet, which is intelligent. Man was made to cultivate the whole earth, and is healthiest when he uses in moderation the greatest number of earth's products, from the North to the South pole.

Charles Fourier said that if a man could read his own palate he would find it to be a correct map of the earth properly cultivated.

Madame Curie, who helped the discovery of radium, comes here to accept for the new Radium Institute at Warsaw, one gram of radium, costing $50,000, paid for by American women.

You could put in a small valise radium worth more than all the wealth of Rockefeller, Ford, Secretary Mellon and George F. Baker combined, if such a radium quantity existed.

Our sun, with its source of terrific energy only guessed at by science, may contain millions of tons of radium.

We can't get at that. But we might give more poor children the benefit of the sun's light, which is accessible and costs nothing.

EX-SERVICE MEN HERE MONDAY NOVEMBER 11

ROYAL P. JETER TO DELIVER ADDRESS TO ASSEMBLED WAR VETERANS

Cameron's annual entertainment for ex-service men will be held on Monday, November 11—Armistice Day.

The meeting this year will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Cameron where at noon the special exercises will be held and a turkey dinner will be served to the ex-soldiers of all wars.

The complete program for the day which includes a football game between the Southwestern University reserves and the Cameron Yoemen is printed elsewhere in this edition.

Hon. Royal P. Jeter will deliver the patriotic address of the occasion. Mr. Jeter was at the dinner held last year and made a short talk to the ex-service men. He was at one time in the naval service of the United States and is a forceful and eloquent speaker to bring a real patriotic message to the men who have served their country under arms.

Dr. John L. Denson will speak on the benefits of government hospital service for ex-service men.

The arrangements and the menu for the dinner are under the direction of Mrs. B. P. Matocha who has been active in promoting these dinners for the ex-soldiers for several years. She has organized her assistants in the matter of preparing the dinner and the ex-soldiers are to have a real treat this year.

J. D. Baskin, post commander of the local post will have charge of the patriotic exercises and all ex-service men are urged to be in the hall around the noon hour for the program and luncheon.

TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS SEALS

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION TO FOSTER SALE IN MILAM COUNTY

Representatives from the different towns and communities of Milam county have been called to meet at the District Court room at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 9, to outline and plan a program for the 1929 Christmas Seal sale. The County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations through their Health Committee Mrs. Albert Rettig, chairman, is sponsoring the sale.

According to information that has been sent out from the Texas Public Health Association headquarters at Austin, the money that was spent on seals last year enabled the Association to carry on a State-wide educational campaign against tuberculosis and other preventable diseases. The work consists of teaching health habits to school children, physical examinations, lectures to all ages and races, literature, exhibits, clinics and tuberculosis surveys.

The State of Texas does not appropriate any money for tuberculosis work outside the State Sanatorium; therefore the Association considers it imperative that the amount raised this year from the seals be greater than in previous years.

If Milam County succeeds in raising as much as five hundred dollars from the sale of Christmas seals, sixty per cent of this amount will be kept, and forty per cent will be sent to the Texas Public Health Association. The sixty per cent which is kept may be used in any way which the council sees fit. The sale of Christmas seals will not begin until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

LION DIRECTORS IN BUSINESS SESSION

TEN NEW MEMBERS TO BE SOUGHT FOR CLUB ROLL IN CAMERON

Directors of the Lions Club met at the home of President J. C. Martin, Friday night, November 1, in the first business session of this nature since the reorganization of the club in September of this year.

The purpose of these meetings is to discuss lengthy business matters that confront the club. According to present plans, these meetings will be held monthly; however, if necessary, two will be called. All directors are earnestly requested to attend as the success of the club rests to a large extent on these meetings. The club is composed of the five officials and the chairman of each committee; however, the club has power to make changes in this order at any time.

Business problems will be thrashed out at these hours before actual presentation at the regular luncheon periods. The membership committee is instructed to give recommendations of applicants desiring to enter the club to the board for consideration before name or names be submitted to a final vote at club hours.

It is hoped that ten new members will be added to the roll in the next few months. F. E. Jackson suggested that a motion be passed granting the member who brings the largest number of new members into the club the privilege of attending the International Lions Convention to be held this year.

New members will be required to pay a fee of ten dollars. Former members are exempt this entrance fee if they enter within the next twelve months.

The secretary was instructed to order sample slips from International headquarters to be mailed members who have been absent from club meetings. At the fourth consecutive non-excusable absence, a member will be dropped from the roll. The secretary was further instructed to present a written report once per month pertaining to financial conditions of the club.

Directors present Friday night were as follows: Jim Baskin, J. P. Love, F. E. Jackson, Larry Hackebell, L. Van Perkins, B. F. Reichert, J. C. Young, W. J. Watson, E. S. Hutcherson and J. C. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Conn Moody will move in the near future into Miss Kristoff's apartment on North Crockett Street. Since they returned to Cameron they have been with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bigbee.

On Saturday night of this week the Happy Six will furnish the music for the regular Saturday night dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Slaughter and son, Jack Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gunn and Mrs. Guthrie attended the Queen's coronation ceremonies at the Cotton Palace Tuesday evening.

Football Banquet Planned By Lions

At a regular meeting of the Lions at Tuesday's luncheon, a motion was passed to give the Yoemen football club a banquet at the close of the current season, the exact date to be set by Coach L. Van Perkins. The entertainment committee will be assisted in preparing the banquet by L. Van Perkins.

The Yoemen have made an excellent record in football this year and are strong contenders for the district and bi-district championship and the Lions feel that the boys are entitled to a real banquet at the close of the season.

When Poppies Blow

I never see bright poppies
But what there comes to me,
A vision of white crosses
Beyond a restless sea.

They sentinel the fallen,
Who cry out in their sleep:
"Make good our sacrifices;
Make haste the faith to keep!"

When poppies red are blowing
Like crimson, pulsing hearts
That will not cease their stirring
As long as War finds marts.

Renew your vows, neglected,
O World, and banish hate,
And still the troubled voices,
Woe makes disconsolate!

J. L. CLINTON BURIED IN CAMEORN SUNDAY

RESIDENT AND FORMER BANK- ER HERE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

J. L. Clinton, 53, native of Burleson county and for many years a resident of Cameron, died at the family residence on East Thirteenth Street, Saturday afternoon, November 2, 1929 at five o'clock, following a long period of declining health.

While Mr. Clinton had been in ill health for months and his condition was considered serious, his death came as a shock to the hearts of hundreds who knew and loved him for his exceptional qualities as a friend and business man. When news came of his death the expression of sorrow was universal in the city and over this section where he had spent many years of his life.

Mr. Clinton was a man of strong character and loveable qualities and commanded many friendships. He was the life of service and devotion to family and friends and his death is a distinct loss to the community as well as to those who knew and loved him for his qualities of character. In the days of his suffering he bore with patience his misfortune and to the end held to the unselfish ideals that made his life an inspiration to his family and friends. He was a true son of the State that gave him birth and never forgot the fine traditions of the times in which he lived to manhood and spent his mature years. He numbered his friends by acquaintances and when he died there was at his bedside the hearts of many to sustain him in his last hours.

Active in business he was widely known. For many years he was cashier of the First National Bank. After his service with the bank he became associated with H. M. Hefley and others in the organization of the Texas Trust Company which later was granted banking privileges and operated for a time, then merged with the First National Bank. His health would not permit further service with the bank and for a time he was associated with his uncle, O. P. Storm of Harlingen in the sale of real estate.

Funeral services for J. L. Clinton, who died at the family residence on East Thirteenth Street Saturday afternoon at five o'clock after an illness of almost a year, were held at the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Rev. P. T. Ramsey officiating.

Mr. Clinton was born December 9, 1876 in Burleson county near Caldwell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clinton. He lived in Central Texas all of his life, coming to Cameron in 1905. On March 7, 1906 he was married to Miss Grace Stovall, who died on December 26, 1913. Four daughters were born to this union, all of whom survive him.

Mr. Clinton was married a second time on October 15, 1916 to Miss Lola Carothers of Houston.

Besides his widow, Mr. Clinton is survived by his four daughters, Misses Maurine, Lola, Mildred and Grace Clinton; his mother, Mrs. J. W. Clinton; a brother, W. T. Clinton of Tahoka; and an uncle, O. P. Storm of Harlingen.

Green Brthers had charge of funeral arrangements. The Masonic Lodge had charge of services at the church and at the grave, and interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Max Collins, W. A. Bonds, B. F. Bonds, J. L. Barmore, J. E. Mangum and H. M. Hefley. Honorary pallbearers were R. P. Jeter, J. M. Ralston, R. L. Batte, A. H. Baskin, E. Vogelsang Jr., W. S. Lamkin, Dr. M. C. Sapp, S. A. Cottle, Penn Wolf, Giles Avriett, Dr. Tom Denson, Robert McLane, W. H. Triggs, A. C. Freeman, A. J. Triggs, Pope Sapp and W. R. Webb of Gause.

Out of town people attending the services were Mrs. Sam Taylor of Ft. Worth, O. P. Storm of Harlingen, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson, Edgar Simpson and Henry Simpson of Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Peyton of Temple, F. Bravard and W. F. Carothers of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clinton of Tahoka and Mrs. S. E. Clinton of Tanglewood.

Southwestern Will Play Yoemen Monday

An unusual football card is due for Armistice Day crowds in Cameron Monday when the Southwestern University reserves play the annual Soldier Day classic against the Yoemen. Coach Perkins has been putting the Yoemen through vigorous training for this game and believes he can take the big end of the score.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Slaughter and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pless spent Sunday in Wa and visit the Miss Euline Slaughter, a student at Four C Business College.

YOEMEN ARE VICTORS IN CALDWELL GAME

TAKE DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP IN CLOSE GAME WON BY A TOUCHBACK

Cameron has won the district football championship by defeating Caldwell in the annual grid classic here last Friday afternoon 2 to 0.

The only score of the game came late in the fourth quarter when it seemed that neither team could score. The game had raged back and forth over the field for nearly four quarters with neither side making appreciable gains although in the number of first downs Caldwell led by a wide margin.

A bad pass from center to the Caldwell quarterback cost the Hornets the game. When the ball was snapped back it flew wild and was recovered by the quarterback who was downed by a swarm of Yoe forwards who scored the touchback for their team to win. A sensational passing attack of the Hornets coupled with a penalty of fifteen yards for delaying the game took the ball within scoring distance of the maroon goal but with just a play left a pass was thrown and batted down by the Yoemen and the game ended. The Yoemen have been defeated six years in succession by the Caldwell team. The victory on last Friday was a long sought revenge for the defeats of the past years and the wildest celebration ever seen at a local game followed the pistol shot of the time keeper when the end of the game came.

Cameron fans swarmed over the field and celebrated the victory for it not only meant victory over the ancient foe but a district championship.

The Yoemen were outplayed in all except one quarter of the game. The Caldwell team was a heavier combination and at times took the ball to the shadow of the maroon goal but the heroic Yoemen fought back the Hornets and kept their goal safe. Coach Perkins played a masterful game and his team gave evidence of his training.

Another Link to Be Closed Soon on Highway No. 43

Announcement has been made that the State Highway Commission will proceed at once with work on Highway No. 43 through Leon county. More than a million dollar bond issue was authorized in Leon county for the permanent improvement of roads two years ago, but the bonds have not been sold because of adverse market conditions. The Highway Commission has voted now to advance the money necessary for the project on Highway 43, from the Robertson county line to the Anderson county line, and the work will commence in the near future. This announcement will be of great interest to the people of this county because a part of this road is the main thoroughfare between Seale, in this county, and Frattin.—Calvert Tribune.

Pastor Praises The Chevrolet Coach For Operation

Atlanta, Nov. 4.—Paying high tribute to the economy and performance of the low-priced automobile, especially as a means of long distance travel, the Rev. G. W. Gasque, pastor of the Episcopal church of the Incarnation, today recited some of the accomplishments of his new six cylinder Chevrolet coach on a recent 10,618 mile loop tour of the western half of the United States, during which he averaged 22.3 miles to the gallon of gas.

Accompanying Dr. Gasque on the seven weeks adventure were Mrs. Gasque and their young daughter, Anna Lee.

The long trip was made on schedule time so that the minister could fill speaking engagements in prominent Episcopal churches along the way. The route led from Atlanta to Chicago, by way of Nashville, Evansville and Indianapolis, thence across the northwestern states to Seattle, down the Pacific Coast through Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles and back home across the desert country of Arizona and New Mexico.

A highlight was the climb of Pike's Peak over a tortuous roadway that stretches 13 miles long the mountain side. Dr. Gasque reports that the car carried its party to the summit without heating the motor. Many other cars attempting the climb were forced to halt along the roadway to cool off before continuing, he said.

Dr. Gasque kept an expense book of the trip, which discloses interesting facts about the performance of the car. Having been newly purchased when the trip began, the car was not extended during the first 500 miles of driving. During this period it averaged 18 miles to the gallon, the book showed.

When the car was broken in, however, the gas mileage was greatly improved. For the entire 10,618 miles, which included driving in cities and in open country, the Chevrolet consumed 476 gallons of fuel, an average of 22.3 miles to the gallon. The gas bill on the trip was $107.18. Sixteen and one half gallons of lubricant were used, costing $22.25. The minister's book showed no expenditures for mechanical repairs.

They've Changed The "Fumble" Rule—

To Save the Player whose Single Misplay Might Lose the Year's "Big Game"

WHEN football rule-makers act—there's a good reason always. The ruling that a fumbled ball is dead if recovered by the opposing team, means that a single lapse in the heat of play no longer will go down in college history as "the play that lost the game." It means that while a player may err, the team-work of eleven men has a chance to overcome the loss.

For each one of us in life, there is the chance to write our own rule to cut down the damage from "fumbles" of plans or opportunities. One of the best safeguards is a steadily growing money reserve—and here is a safe, profitable place for yours.

COUNTY BANKERS TO EFFECT ORGANIZATION

MEETING TO BE HELD IN ROCKDALE TUESDAY NIGHT—DAIRYING MAY BE DISCUSSED

A meeting of the bankers of Milam county will be held in Rockdale, Tuesday evening, November 5, for the purpose of organizing a Milam county Bankers Association. Plans for the meeting have not been perfected at this writing, but it will probably take the form of a dinner and round-table discussion. All county banks have signified their intention of having representatives present, it is stated.

There is a growing interest among Milam county bankers in the work of promoting the dairying industry in this county. This interest was made manifest by the attendance of bankers at a dairy meeting held in Cameron on the evening of October 21, at which time representatives of the Borden Milk Plant of Waco, were present as well as members of the Waco Chamber of Commerce. Among the latter was W. W. Woodson, president of the First National Bank of Waco, who addressed the meeting and outlined the plan by which Waco bankers are assisting farmers of that territory in obtaining good milk cows. Waco banks have entered into the plan wholeheartedly, and any Waco farmer may obtain a loan, with which to buy dairy cows, provided he can convince the bank that he is in position to take proper care of the cows after he gets them, and that he is raising sufficient feedstuffs for them.

It is known that local bankers are interested in this matter and while no program of discussion has yet been formulated for the meeting next Tuesday night, it is probable that the dairy cow matter will come before the meeting. However, the principle object of the meeting is to formulate a county association of bankers for the general good of the banking business in this county.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mrs. J. C. Martin To Address Parent- Teachers Thursday

Mrs. J. C. Martin will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, to be held at the Yoe High Library at 3:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, November 14. The subject will be 'The Study Circle: Its Purpose and How Organized.'

It is urged that the mothers of

Cameron attend this meeting whether they are members of the P. T. A. or not. It is an accepted fact in these times that the profession of motherhood needs study as well as any other profession. Mrs. Martin will discuss child care in every age, from the preschool on through the high school days. It is hoped that a number of study groups will be formed as a part of the P. T. A. work.

Epworth League At Church Party

Climaxing the Halloween season, which was filled with parties of all kinds, was the social enjoyed by members of the Epworth Junior League of the Methodist church last Friday evening.

The group gathered on the church lawn, and in their fancy costumes and masks paraded around the public square. They then returned to the church, were greeted by a ghost and playd in the basement which was gay with Halloween decorations.

Refreshments consisted of hot chocolate and sandwiches. It was estimated that some 250 children enjoyed the frolic. Miss Mollie Moore is sponsor of the Junior League.

Junior Class Host To School Students

The junior class of Yoe High school entertained at the Country Club Friday evening, having as their guests the remainder of the Yoe High student body and the visiting students.

The class colors of pink and green from the Caldwell high school, were used in the decorations, which consisted of crepe paper festoons, queen's crown and pink roses.

With Miss Arnette Ryan playing the piano, a grand march opened the entertainment, which consisted of dancing and table games. Miss Ivy Armstrong directed some of the guests in games on the porches.

Teachers present were the class sponsors, Misses Mary Lake Henderson and Velda Walker and Mr. Guy Newton, and Misses Ivy Armstrong and Neeley. Other chaperones were Mrs. Gaither, Mrs. Lesovsky, Mrs. Evans, Miss Mae Marshall, Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. John Ryan.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

Mrs. Ernest Eggert, newly elected president of the Presbyterian Auxiliary to succeed Mrs. John A. Geen, who has moved to Drallas, presided at the business session of the Auxiliary held at the church Monday afternoon. With the acceptance of the position of secretary of spiritual life by Mrs. C.

W. Lawrence, all vacancies have been filled.

Christmas cards for the annual sale were ordered. It was decided to have a Bazaar the first week in December, more detailed plans to be announced later. Presbyterian churches thruout the State are planning to promote a mammoth evangelistic campaign beginning January - and lasting through Easter. Every church in the State will have an evangelistic meeting. The ladies decided at their meeting Monday the preacher whom they would attempt to secure for Cameron. A more definite announcement will be made later.

Members will meet in circles next Monday afternoon.

CHRISTIAN AID

The Missionary Society members of the Christian church met at the church Monday afternoon and went in a body to Tracy to the home of Mrs. Cecil Plate, where the meeting was held. The program was led by Mrs. R. H. Harris, and she was assisted by Mesdames Raymond Beard, Jim Adams, W. M. Ryan and G. C. Walters. The pastor of the church, Rev.

Hardigree, gave an inspirational talk.

A feature of the program was a vocal duet by Mrs. Hardigree and Mr. Curtis Hays, who has charge of the music in the Christian church revival being conducted at the Presbyterian church.

A social half hour followed the program at which time the hostess served a salad plate and grape juice.

WHAT WE THINK By FRANK DIXON

We do not have much on hand this week, so we are going to 'vent our spleen' as the old saying goes.

The editor of the average country newspaper is scared stiff every time he sees his shadow for fear something will slip into his paper whereby someone cusses a little or stops his paper.

Old Ed Howe published a paper, the Atchison Globe for years in fear of the public. Finally he could afford to publish a paper monthly wherein he writes and says just what he pleases and when a subscriber kicks he gives his money back and stops his paper permanently.

When we can afford it, that is the kind of a paper we are going to publish.

We notice quite often some confounded liar gets a head liner on the front pages. We would tell them about it, but what's the use.

We want to repeat that the greatest delight of our life is the fact that no one can take anything with them when they leave this terrestrial sphere.

Our most worthless are often well supplied with this world's goods.

After all it is the fool things that interest us.

What we are interested in, is to know whether young Coolidge's wife gets his breakfast for him. That is the acid test whether or not she is modern or old fashioned.

We believe that a lot of the meanness in men could be cured if there was someone around big enough to give them an all fired good spanking.

We are too busy to indulge in wise cracks.

We know some mighty cheap skates who ride in big autos.

the midnight Misadventure of Gregory Jones

A crash brought Mrs. Gregory Jones bolt upright in bed, her heart pounding.

"Why!" demanded her husband savagely, nursing a bruised shin and groping for the light switch. "Why did you have to leave that chair there?"

In the front hall the telephone rang again, insistently. Jones shivered in the draft from the open window, and without waiting for a reply, disappeared through the doorway. Pertinently, his voice drifted back to her.

"No, Eleanor is not here. . . Yes, we're expecting her tomorrow. . . Tell her what! I'll tell you, young man, that it's an imposition to wake folks at this time of night! And I'll deliver no messages!"

The receiver banged on the hook. Jones, muttering to himself, stumbled back down the hall.

"That settles it!" he exclaimed, still shivering. "Tomorrow, I'll have a telephone put in this bedroom."

Mrs. Jones smiled drowsily, snuggled deep into her pillow.

"Where have I heard that before," she murmured. "Tomorrow, I'll order one, myself."

Telephones where you need them save time, patience—and midnight misadventures.

Few know that one or two additional instruments cost considerably less than the single telephone they now have!

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of your telephone service.

Animals and Reptiles

Worshiped by Mankind

It is a fact that cows, on account of their supposedly sacred character, are allowed to roam at will in India but the animals are venerated or respected rather than actually worshipped. Real worship of cattle, however, has existed at other periods of the world's history. It was common among the ancient Egyptians, who possessed the cult of the bull Apis. When one representative of Apis died, a new bull was sought and specially educated in sacred matters for four months. Celebration of its birthday was held annually, with sacrifices of white oxen, and it was unlawful for women to go near it. Apis was supposed to have oracular powers, and after death, was mummified. Another animal that has received great respect has been the white elephant, which is believed, in Siam, to carry a dead man's soul. It cannot be purchased, and feasts are held for it and a funeral when it dies. But perhaps the most feared and respected of all is the serpent. At Whydah, in Africa, there is a serpent temple, and these reptiles in many parts of Africa are regarded as incarnations of dead relatives.

Worcester Annoyed by Exuberance of Youth

One has but to delve into biography to discover that even the great were beset with human frailties just like less famous mortals. The daughter of the poet Longfellow, in her memoirs, tells how the children kept the community on edge.

Longfellow's neighbors did not invariably share his indulgence toward his children. The lexicographer, Worcester, was a next door neighbor in Cambridge. A little pond, where the children skated, lay between the two places. The boys, of course, were noisy, which was not minded at home. But dictionary making is not like poetry and the dignified Worcester, disturbed, frequently came down and chased the children off his end of the pond, ordering them, in words not to be found in his dictionary, to keep their racket at home.

Golden Age of Labor

Probably at no other time in all history was the lot of the laborer nearer a "golden age" than it was in the fifteenth and early part of the sixteenth centuries. At no time were wages, relatively speaking, so high, and at no time was food so cheap. In England, parliament made constant attempts to reduce the wages, but they kept high and finally became customary. Eventually, of course, living costs mounted and the laborer's lot again approached its norm. But during the years of his paradise the hours were short; eight being the common day's work; the period of winter wages was brief, being December and January; the rate was just as good whether the laborer was employed for a day or a year; and in some cases he was paid for every day including his Sundays and holidays off. —Detroit News.

Wires for Telephones

Just how much business is dependent upon the telephone is indicated by the amount of wire for telephone service which must be introduced into a great office building. In the Equitable Trust building—36 stories high—more than 55,000 cubic feet of lead-covered cable, weighing 23 tons and containing over 9,000,000 feet of wire, were necessary for telephone facilities. Other inside wiring amounted to more than 1,000,000 feet. The Graybar building—29 stories high—has more than 19,500 feet of cable, weighing 13½ tons. The telephone wire in this building amounts to more than 6,000,000 feet.

Poor Susie

It was Friday and the pupils were due to recite various things they had learned during the week. Dorothy said she would give a proverb, and when her turn came stood up and solemnly said, "Susie Adam forgets Susie Adam."

The teacher gasped and called her back. "What on earth is that?" "Quotation!" said Dorothy proudly. "Say it again!" "Susie Adam forgets Susie Adam." "But," said the teacher, "when did we have that?" "Monday." The teacher turned to her diary and saw for Monday: "Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm." —Boston Transcript.

Labor of Love

"Uncle" Josh Powell, circuit rider of the early days of the Nineteenth century, whose field of operations covered Oregon, as well as Missouri and Tennessee, was not "out for the money." In fact, he took no remuneration, asking only fare for himself and feed for his horses. "Just charge my bill to the Lord," he would say as he mounted his cayuse to ride away from the farmhouse where he had been entertained while preaching in the neighborhood. —Kansas City Times.

Silver Lining

Gen. William Mitchell, of aviation fame, said in the course of a political speech in New York:

"We must always look on the bright side, friends. We should emulate the little girl."

"The little girl had two pets, a cat and a canary, that she dearly loved. But the cat ate the canary!"

"Did the little girl despair? No. Looking on the bright side, she said: 'I have two pets in one now.'"

FOOTBALL VICTORY INSPIRES POEMS
WRITTEN BY SEVENTH GRADE PUPILS

We Won

When the game did start,
Thump! Thump! went my heart;
But when we made the home run,
There came the cry, 'We Won!'
—Maidell Smith.

We Won

After losing seven years,
There were shed many tears
By the Caldwell team,
We Won
—William Slaughter.

We Won

By brawn and by muscle
Our Yoemen did hustle,
And from the Hornets,
We Won
—William Slaughter.

We Won

'We' is a boy ten years old
When he slipped off, a lie he never told;
'We' was good; 'We' was bad,
In fact you could easily make him mad.
It was on a cold but frisky day
'We' went merrily out to play.

'We' was on the football team,
He never lost it always seemed
He hit the line hard with his 'bean',
He would tear around like loose steam
'We' was strong; 'We' was large,
He was like a great big barge
'We' was mighty; 'We' was great
'We' was the fastest boy in the state.
Anyhow, 'We' won!
—Frank M. Newton.

We Won

It was the first day of November
And just the kind of a day
For a fine game of football
For Yoe High to play.

The first quarter past
And so did the half
And nothing had happened
But then—in the last.

Our team had the pep
But Caldwell did it lack
And just on that account
They made a touch-back.

Then when the game was said to be over,
I thought as I listened to the yells
And the cheers
What a good team Yoe Hi has
To beat Caldwell who hadn't
Been beat for seven whole years.
—Patsy McGregor.

We Won

The captain caught the forward pass,
And many a man he dumped on the grass,
He crossed the goal like a shot from a gun,
And I'll tell the world, We Won!
—Harley Modesett.

We Won

The 'Caldwell Hornets' to Cameron came,
To beat us at the football game;
But the 'Yoemen',
Just like bowmen,
Won the football game.
—Carroll Green.

We Won

It was Friday, that the game was played
Victory was in the hands of the eleven,
When they marched on the field to save
By the boy that was number seven.
The last of the quarter was nearly up
When the boy tackled a ton
That set him back of the goal and up
Went loud yells—"We Won!"
—Wilson Mode.

We Won

T'was on last Friday evening
That Caldwell came to town,
They thought that in the first half
They'd score a touch-down.

But Cameron got to working
That football winning play,
When Cameron gets to working,
It always saves the day.

At last at the end of the game
When the referee fired his gun,
All the Caldwell team could hear
Was 'Hooray, We Won!'

First time in seven years,
Our dear old Yoemen won;
Cameron gave all the cheers,
While Caldwell gave not a one.
—Gwayne Shipp.

We Won

We had a game of football today,
It was a tough one, I say,
When the ball was a fumble
All the boys did tumble
We had most of the fun
For We Won!
—Ralph Koelph.

We Won

On the first day of November
Old Caldwell came to town,
She was out for a district champion-ship,
She was out to win renown.
So she invaded Cameron
The Cameron team to beat.
She had beaten the Yoemen in past years
And thought they would have a treat.

But in the fourth quarter
The Yoemen got a break
The center passed the ball too high
The Caldwell men did shake.
The Yoemen tore the Caldwell line
And the receiver they did smear,
The score was 2 to 0 for Cameron
For the first time in many a year.
—Giles Avriett.

Everyone must do his stuff
The stuff was done,

—Mertice Lunsford.

Each player on the team had his fun

Miscellaneous

My father and I went duck hunting. We killed a crane and took it up to a Mexican's house and asked him if he wanted a duck.

He said, 'No look much like duck.'
A few days later the Mexican came to town. Dad said, 'How was the duck?'

The Mexican said, 'Maybe so it was duck, but me no like that duck.'

School Spirit

Such an easy thing to have and yet there are scores that lack this great spirit. The lessons are not hard unless you make them. The real key to 'School Spirit' is, do not fight your school-pack. If you cheat in getting your lessons, half of the spirit is gone there, for school is a place to gain knowledge for your own benefit. If you are a good citizen of your school you have the right school spirit.

Value of Specializing
Recognized Long Ago

About 2,400 years ago Herodotus, the Greek historian, wrote this about the Egyptian: "The art of medicine among them is distributed thus: Each physician is a physician of one disease and of no more. And the whole country is full of physicians, for some profess themselves to be physicians of the eyes, others of the head, others of the teeth, others of the affections of the stomach, and others of the more obscure ailments." . . . And here we've been going along imagining that we have something new when we say we are living in an age of specialists. Every age is an age of specialists, and always has been—even in caveman days when each clan had its champion spear thrower. The key to wealth and fame is specialization, doing some one thing better than others can.—Capper's Weekly.

Balsa Lightest of Woods

Balsa (Ochroma lagopus), called goano in Porto Rico and lanera in Cuba, is a common tree, particularly along the seashores in the West Indies and Central America. It is said to be called moho in British Honduras, lanilla in Guatemala and guano in Spanish Honduras. The tree is rarely more than 40 or 50 feet in height and the trunk is sometimes from four to five feet in diameter. The wood of balsa is nearly white or sometimes tinged with red, showing practically no distinction between heartwood and sapwood. It has a silky texture, is rather coarse but straight grained, and is the lightest of all woods, even lighter than true cork. A sample of balsa from Trinidad exhibited at Philadelphia in 1876 had a specific gravity of .120, or about 7½ pounds per cubic foot.

==There's a Difference in Towns

Go into some towns and you will note that when a proposition comes up that has to do with the progress or welfare of the community, that everyone in town it seems, gets back of it and works and gives time and money to put it across.

When the job is done, the community turns its attention to something else and with the same, whole souled co-operation it turns in and puts it across.

Drop into another town and watch what happens when a like proposition comes up. A few will turn in and work for it, neglect their business and give time and money and effort to do something that will benefit the whole community. The others will stand around and do nothing. Blind to the good features of the proposition they will pick little flaws on which they can knock and give this as an excuse for their lack of co-operation.

A town can not keep secret which faction rules it. You can tell it by one look at the town.

'PARITY' FOR AGRICULTURE MEANS BILLIONS FOR INDUSTRY

American industry is crying that it must have new outlets abroad.

Has it ever occurred to industry that the greatest and richest potential market in the world lies in the interior of a country called the United States and along the valley called the Mississippi?

Has it ever occurred to industry that a doubling of the buying power of this region would do more to assure industry's continued expansion and prosperity than almost anything else the human mind could conceive?

And has it further ever occurred to industry that the direct, immediate, and logical way to increase the buying power of this region is to put its shoulder behind the movement to hold the Republican party to its pledges to agriculture?

A literal fulfillment of the Republican party's pledges would mean a substantial increase in the buying power of the agricultural area of the United States.

The present income enjoyed by agricultural America is approximately 12 billion dollars.

Were agriculture enjoying the same proportionate income that the rest of the United States is enjoying that income would be 18 billion dollars.

'Parity' for agriculture means just that: an added annual income of roughly 6 billion dollars.

Were this ideal realized, who would get the additional 6 billion dollars—agriculture or industry.

Obviously, both.

Agriculture would promptly turn over the bulk of the sum to industry, in exchange for the products which industry has to sell.

Industry would profit by the increased buying power of American agriculture just as it has already profited by the increased buying power of American labor.

'Parity' for agriculture means nothing more and nothing less than enormously increased sales for industry.

Why, then, shouldn't industry exert all the vast influence it has at its command to hold the tariff revision to the purposes outlined by President Hoover?

Widen the spread between agriculture's costs and prices by $1000 per individual farmer per year, and you place at industry's disposal the colossal added buying power of 7 billion dollars per year.

Where else in the world has industry the target of a 7 billion dollar market to shoot at?

The tariff can be so revised as further to weaken agriculture's buying power or it can be so revised as greatly to expand it.

Surely industry should be able to see that a weakened buying power on the part of agriculture would represent to industry a calamity of the first magnitude.

Surely it should be able to see that its interests all lie on the side of expanding agriculture's buying power via the plan of tariff revision originary platform.

Why should industry worry itself about foreign markets when the world's greatest market lies right at its door?

Iowa is a better market than India, Kansas is better than Kamchatka, and Minnesota is better than Mesopotamia.

The will to buy is in the west. There no want needs to be created, no racial prejudice needs to be broken down, no old-age habit needs to be overcome.

There sales-resistance is at its lowest, and there foreign competition is virtually non-existent.

There no anti-American legislation needs to be feared.

There no salesman has to be taught a new language, and no adjustment has to be made to strange commercial practices.

Industry should acquaint itself with the fact that the 'greatest foreign market' in the world lies along the Mississippi valley.

Nor should it lose sight of the fact that every added billion dollars a year for agriculture means an added billion dollars a year for industry.

'Parity' for agriculture means billions for industry.

Isn't it time that industry began to see straight on this matter?

Isn't it time that it caught the idea that instead of opposing agriculture's case before congress it should be agriculture's most vigorous champion and special pleader?—Minneapolis Tribune.

SHALL WE CELEBRATE PEACE OR WAR?

Armistice Day, the day on which actual fighting ceased in the War of the Nations, is so significant that the day, November 11, has been made a national holiday by the British, Americans and French. This year we celebrate the eleventh anniversary of the day.

It seems most important however in thinking of the day that our thoughts turn to peace rather than war. That seems to be the general trend of thought of today's statesmen.

Yet, Private Harold Peat—the great Canadian war hero—points out in his lectures that war and peace are not really political questions but questions of education.

Thank God, the schools are beginning to realize this. For decades past, our historians have won our wars for us so easily—the United States taking usually fifty pages to tell the story of the Revolutionary War while the British tell it in four lines; the Canadians using forty pages to tell of Queenstown Heights and Lundys Lane while the 'Statens' historians seldom mention these battles—that we all knew when we were through the grades that our country could lick the stuffing out of the other fellow's country in about two weeks.

Let us, as the days go by remember to teach a little more of the hell of war and a little less of its glories. And let us build more monuments to heroes of peace—rather than to the heroes of war—splendid as they have been—for after all has not peace done much more for the world than war.

Competition has reached such a stage in the tire game that a car owner can get more for his money when it comes to tires than anything else he buys. It used to be that 2500 or 3000 miles was a good record for a tire. Now unconditional guarantees can be secured on cheap tires of 16,000 to 25,000 miles. Also we used to hear that the chemists would have to find a substitute for rubber. This, when all the use to which rubber was put was pencil erasers and overshoes. Today there are a thousand times as much rubber used as formerly and it is cheaper than ever. The man who says a thing can't be done these days is taking a big chance.

Remember the signs that used to appear on the bridges '$5 fine for driving over this bridge faster than a walk.'

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL IS WELL ATTENDED

MEETING WILL CLOSE HERE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT, NOVEMBER 13TH

The revival which began last Friday evening is being well attended. Rev. O. C. Williamson, Presbyterian minister of Austin, delivered a fine sermon Sunday morning. His message was inspiring.

The Sunday evening service was well attended.

A fine crowd was out Monday evening to hear Rev. Hardigree's sermon on 'Temptation.'

Tuesday evening Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the First Baptist church, preached on 'Facing the Future without Fear,' using as his text 'It is I, be not afraid.' His sermon was enjoyed by all and was very much in keeping with the sermons already preached.

Wednesday evening Mr. Hardigree's sermon was 'The Wages of Sin.'

Thursday evening Rev. P. T. Ramsey, pastor of the Methodist church, was to have contributed a sermon, but having had to attend conference Mr. Hardigree will preach 'An Old-Time Methodist Sermon.'

Friday evening Rev. J. P. Love, pastor of the Episcopal church, will deliver a message, which is very promising.

The sermons Saturday evening Sunday morning and Sunday evening will be preached by Rev. Hardigree.

Mr. C. S. Hayes, song director and leader of Madras, Georgia, has been very valuable during this series of evangelistic meetings. His solos have contributed greatly to each service and here he has gained much popularity and it is hoped that he will visit Texas frequently.

The members of the Christian church take this method of thanking the members of the Presbyterian church for the use of their magnificent building. We are very grateful to those of other denominations who sang in the choir and we thank the local pastors for the sermons contributed and services rendered. We appreciate the things each and every individual has done in making possible this ten days' revival and the promotion of its success. We feel that much good has been derived from our efforts in this worthy cause and are happy that such a fine fellowship exists.

Saturday evening Mr. Hardigree's sermon will be 'God's Best Institution.' Sunday morning 'Working Together,' and Sunday evening, 'The More Excellent Way.'

The meeting will continue through Wednesday, November 13. Mr. Hardigree will do the preaching and his sermons will be: Monday evening, 'A Change of Heart,' Tuesday evening, 'Salvation,' and Wednesday evening, 'The Christian Growth.'

A prayer service is held at the Presbyterian church each morning at ten o'clock. A period of thirty minutes is spent in studying the Bible and praying. The congregation is reading a chapter a day in the Book of John and the fourteenth chapter should be reached by next Wednesday. The meeting will close next Wednesday evening and Rev. Hardigree and Mr. Hayes will start a week's revival in Rockdale at the Christian church on Thursday evening, November 14.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By John McRae

In Flanders Fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The lark still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we die
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If you break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

Mrs. Kinard Is Host To Friends Thursday

To observe the birthday of her daughter, Miss Gladys Kinard, and that Jack O'Lanterns welcomed the guests on the lawn, in the doors, and at the windows. Favors were Halloween caps and whistles.

Games of all kinds and dancing furnished diversions for the evening. The hostess served chicken salad sandwiches, hot chocolate and cake, and Halloween candies in black and orange.

Misses Virginia Weems and Edith McGehee in Halloween costumes helped to serve, and they also gave readings appropriate to the occasion and directed to the three honor guests.

SAN ANTONIO CAPITAL MAKING AN EFFORT TO BLOCK ACREAGE ON WEST SIDE OF JOHNSON NO. 1 FOR A TEST

Local parties co-operating with San Antonio capital and oil operators are making an effort to block 300 acres of land immediately west and southwest of the old original Johnson well for a test in the near future. The San Antonio parties have agreed to begin operations within 30 days after the acreage has been secured and put up a sufficient forfeit to guarantee good faith on their part. So far there has never been a test well on the west side of the old Johnson well, while there have been several drilled and proven to be dry on the east side, which leads all local people and also land owners in the vicinity of the old well to believe that the vein and fault are on the west side.

The Michalk-Clark well being drilled on the Gilchrist home place, northwest of the old original well, is looked upon very favorably by geologists and oil scouts of making a well, due to its westerly direction. It is sincerely hoped that the land owners of the vicinity of the locality trying to be blocked will cooperate to the extent of giving their cooperation to get this test made on the southwest side.

Already 150 acres have been pledged for the block of 300 acres which is required to get the test made.—Thorn-dale Champion.

Texas Lady Says She Was Up One Day and Down the Next. Pains Stopped After She Took Cardui.

Terrell, Texas.—"I was run-down and nervous, and for several months my health had not been good," says Mrs. Louis Wieland, of this place. "I was up one day and down the next. I never felt like doing anything."

"I worried all the time, and could not sleep well at night."

"Periodically I would suffer from pains in my back and sides. I would have awful headaches, and would feel dull and dizzy."

"My sister had taken Cardui, and she persuaded me to try it. She said to me one day: 'If you will only try it, you will see for yourself how much good it will do you.' So I got a bottle of Cardui and began to take it. It was not long until I felt fine. I got stronger, and my nerves did not bother me any more."

"The pains stopped coming in my back, and I could do my work without any trouble. I think Cardui is a fine medicine."

"The fact that so many women have been helped, in their efforts to build up their health, by taking Cardui, should encourage you to try this well-known medicine."

Dave Speakman Taken In Oklahoma Arrest Returned To City

Dave Speakman, charged by indictment in four cases in district court for selling liquor, was arrested in Okemach, Oklahoma on Saturday night, November 2, 1929 by Deputy Guy Pope and officers there on information furnished by Sheriff Blaylock of Milam county.

Speakman escaped from the Milam county jail on March 30 of this year and had been at liberty since. The work of Sheriff Blaylock in this case has furnished Texas police records with one of the most remarkable of man hunts. Sheriff Blaylock made one trip to Oklahoma in search of Speakman.

The prisoner is charged with selling liquor in cases growing out of discovery here this year, according to Sheriff Blaylock, of his disposing of intoxicants to high school students. He was brought back to Cameron Tuesday and lodged in jail by Deputy Pope.

The New Essex

Makes and holds its friends not only because of its exceptional merit but because we put behind it a spirit of courtesy and a maintenance system that is almost as good as the car. The interest we take in the customer adds just that much to the desirability of buying here.

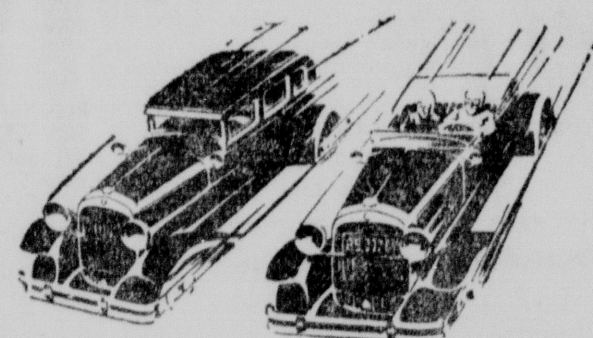

The Essex is the best of its kind and that has been proven. Those who have bought cars and tires and other merchandise here know that the service we render is the best also.

The New Essex Super Six is a wonder car. The factory deserves that credit. We cannot build Essex cars here but we have spent days and nights perfecting our service to match it. The Essex owner will testify about the spirit of our business.

ESSEX

first prize
for reliability

The Grand Prize for reliability in the 15-day running of the famous "Tour de France" was awarded to Essex the Challenger. The two Essex entries finished the race without a single penalty—the only cars with perfect scores—winning by a great margin over the strong field of high-priced American and European cars. . . . Not only the Grand Prize, but the Ansaldo Cup, for quick getaway; the Lyonnais Cup, the Pyrenees Cup, the Atlantic Cup, the Cup of Brittany, the Cup of Normandy and the Cup of the North were also taken by Essex the Challenger.

Performs Like a Costly Car Because Built Like a Costly Car

Essex the Challenger looks and acts like a costly car because it is built like a costly car. Its enormous success has inspired others to claim qualities "like Essex". Yet everything about it—appearance, performance, comfort and luxurious smoothness—mark it apart and altogether different.

To be like Essex without building like Essex is a goal no car has found possible. More than 200,000 owners know the outright facts. You can know them too in 30 minutes behind the wheel.

You can only find comparison for Essex qualities among costly cars, because in design and construction it stands with the practice of the fine car field.

All These "Extras" at No Extra Cost

Its good size and impressive appearance appeal to those who want comfort, distinction and good looks. Its completeness in the things which contribute to costlier car advantages, is outstanding. Radiator shutters—side lamps—chromium plated bright work—four hydraulic shock absorbers—adult size roominess and adjustable seats are details only costlier cars have provided.

PAINT HEADQUARTERS

Friday and Saturday Suggestions.

Save by painting
NOW with SWP

If your house is even slightly weather-beaten, paint now for economy. Give your house an armor-like coating of SWP—protect it against ruinous winter's rain and snow—and save costly repair bills.

Fewer gallons of SWP are needed because its wonderful "body" thoroughly covers more square feet of surface per gallon. Therefore it costs you less per job. Call us for an estimate—positive proof of the economy of SWP. Come and consult our beautiful new color schemes. This aid is yours merely for the asking.

Trade-mark Registered
S-W Paint Products are sold the world over under this famous trade-mark

Just look over these values—all of guaranteed quality—for Friday and Saturday. And remember—we are right here on the spot to make good anything which fails to give satisfaction.

We are particularly proud to recommend the famous Sherwin-Williams line of paints and varnishes. By actual test and through long experience, we know them to be the best on the market.

Paint is easily adulterated. Nobody can tell much about paint by looking at it in the can. But a few months after it is applied, the super quality of SWP is apparent to anyone. We sell SWP because it lasts more than twice as long as cheaper paint—because it gives absolute satisfaction, retaining its clean, true colors to the very last—because it is the world's greatest paint bargain.

Texas and Texans

By Will H. Mayes

Electrical Output Increases

A few weeks ago this columnist stated that he regretted to report that Texas stood thirteenth in electrical output for the year 1927, the figures for that year being the latest he had seen. It is the business of friend W. C. Edwards of the Texas Service Information Bureau, to know the very latest statistics about Texas development so he writes to say that for the first six months of 1929 Texas has held the eighth rank in the production of electricity and bids fair to keep it up for the rest of the year. Every month of this year the increase has been 25 per cent over the amount used in the corresponding month of last year.

Texas are just beginning, too, to appreciate the advantages of a more general use of electric current, and in a few years the State will doubtless be the largest consumer in the country, leading in that as it does in almost everything else.

Texas Road Building

Texas lead the entire country in improved highway mileage in 1928, the number of miles being 2356. Kansas came second with 1733 miles and Arkansas constructed 1673 miles of highway. The enormous size of the state will keep Texas from being covered with public highways for many years, but the work is going forward at a very satisfactory rate. Many of the counties are constructing county and community roads of an improved kind, these in most cases being colaterals to the State highways.

Penitentiary Affairs

The committee appointed by the last session of the legislature to study and make specific recommendations as to the rebuilding of the Texas penitentiary system will submit a majority report favoring a location 'within 20 miles of Austin,' but without naming the exact place. A minority report will favor building a central prison plant on some of the State owned plantations near Huntsville or Houston. Legislators who are expressing opinions on the committee report are by no means in accord as to what will be best. The safest guess is that nothing is likely to be accomplished as a result of the committee's investigations, at least in the near future. Doubtless the old structure at Huntsville will be patched up a bit and Texas will continue its old methods of mis-justice in caring for its prison population.

That Highway Patrol

The motor cycles have been bought for the fifty highway patrolmen who will soon be policing the highways. Judging from the newspapers about the first duty of the force will be to teach the bus and truck drivers that they do not own the highways of the state. There is much complaint that the drivers of these huge motor vehicles insist on using the middle of the highways with little or no regard for the drivers of lighter vehicles. The next legislature will have to take some steps to curb the fellows who have no respect for road ethics and may have to go to the extent of cancelling the licenses of those guilty of repeated offenses.

Junction Improvements

Junction, in Kimble county, has just built, or is completing, three churches and one courthouse, and evidently the people there intend to try to make the people good by law if they can't be persuaded to be good by the churches. Junction is a growing county seat, though, and growing towns are having to build new churches and public buildings to keep pace with their neighbors. The more generously a people support and use the churches and church buildings the less use they are likely to have for the courts and courthouses. But even though courthouses may be little patronized, the people want buildings of which they may be a bit proud.

San Saba's Real Builders

A San Saba correspondent, who evidently is not W. A. Smith of the San Saba News, says that all the major movements in civic progress in that town are to be accredited to the women and not the men, and that in the past year the work that has materialized is due to the activities of the women. While 'Billie' Smith busies himself writing his 'Son-of-a-Gun' prattle and attending press association meetings, Mrs. Billie is heading the women's auxiliary of the chamber of commerce and, with the help of various committees of women, is bringing about worth while things for the town, says the report. We repeat it—Billie didn't write that report.

Enlarging Creamery Plants

Palestine has a creamery built some while ago and thought then to be about all that a more creamery needed in the way of a plant. Extensive repairs, improvements and enlargements are now found necessary. The wooden building is to be changed into a brick veneer structure, plate glass windows are to be put in, and the plant is to be modernized throughout. Practically every one of the first-built creameries and milk products plants in the state have had to be enlarged to handle the increasing business. The dairy business of the country is coming South rapidly and Texas will soon become as noted for its herds of dairy cattle as it has been for beef cattle.

Decatur Ships Milk

Decatur is shipping whole milk to El Paso in train load assignments, so the papers report. If El Paso needs milk, why shouldn't Texas dairies supply it? Just why El Paso doesn't encourage local dairying, at least sufficient to supply the city with milk is not explained, but as it does not, Decatur is to be congratulated for being able to keep El Paso from getting milk hungry.

Marfa's Improvements

Marfa, out in Presidio county, seems to be headed toward some worthwhile improvements. Plans have been completed for a modern hotel with 60 guest rooms, which indicates that Marfa has many visitors. A vote is to be taken on a $600,000 road bond issue, an indication that Marfa believes in good roads. A glance at the issue of the Sentinel, the local paper that contains this news, shows that one of the greatest needs of the town is some merchants who know and appreciate the value to business and to a town of modern advertising methods. A town seldom outgrows the progressiveness of its merchants and modern business progress is built about advertising.

Bank Accounts Increase

The report of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas for the week ending October 23 showed that 87 banks in 17 reporting centers had $49,754,000 increase in deposits over the previous week and $20,418,000 over the corresponding week of 1929. This is a fair index to the financial condition of the section.

The flurry, with accompanying losses in Wall Street, recently should prove a good thing for this country. For a time at least it will release for use in this section vast sums of money that have gone into wild speculation in New York. The burnt child avoids the fire that but lately burned it, though the lesson of playing with fire is forgotten after a time.

Marlin Starts New Hotel

Marlin has long suffered for lack of sufficient hotel accommodations, but work there has begun on an 8 story, 110 room, hotel building which is to be completed by next June. Marlin has needed more hotel room to make it the health resort it has tried to become without enough hotel facilities to take care of the people who have wanted to go there.

Mineral Wells has completed its new hotel and it is said that it will be filled with guests from the beginning. The only way to build up a resort is to be prepared to take care of the resorters.

Miss Sarah Dossett, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Dossett, 1503 Columbus Avenue, Waco, and formerly of Cameron, was crowned Queen of the Planet Earth at the Texas Cotton Palace Tuesday evening in a gorgeous spectacle at the Coliseum in Waco, 'The Pageant of the Universe.' Miss Dossett is a sister to Stanton Dossett and a niece of Mrs. W. H. Henley of Cameron. She was crowned Queen Cybele by Arthur C. Upleger, as King Apollo the Sun-God.

The detailed description of Miss Dossett's costume appeared in Wednesday's issue of the Waco News-Tribune: 'Miss Dossett's grace of bearing and her dignity, inspired her role as queen with unusual distinction and charm. Her costume, representing fruits and flowers of the earth, was of white imported satin. Her train of white chiffon velvet, inner-lined with rose silk and lined with green satin, represented the four elements—air, fire, earth and water. A golden head-dress, jeweled with stones of topaz and aquamarine, typified rays of the sun and the sun theme was reflected in a high standing collar of gold lace also elaborately jeweled.

'White satin of the gown symbolized snow, and tulle in shaded blues and delicate greens suggested the char of the sea. Its filmy borders were outlined with sequins in colors of sea water. Hand made flowers in four shades of rose, centered with jewels, adorned the gown. Aquamarine gems and graceful grape-like clusters and golden leaves were embroidered upon the satin, while gorgeous red roses of jewels, sequins and rhinestones also ornamented it.

'From jeweled bracelets at the queen's wrists hung ropes of dewdrops, which fell to these ruby-petaled roses.

'A magnificent train created a fanciful background for Cybele's representations as queen of the planet earth. Blue of the sky was predominant in tints of rose were scattered about it the sequined pattern, and clouds in nebular fashion. Where it fell from the shoulders there was a transparent insert shimmering with dewdrops of pearl and rhinestone. Rays of sun penetrating the clouds fell upon snow-capped, gray-blue mountains. White seafoam and rolicking waves of the sea intermingled with the design, and crimson sequins at the extremity of the train formed tongues of flame, which, as they leaped, were calmed by the sea. A white wig and slippers of white moire adorned with roses completed the costume.

'Queen Cybele, entering, was heralded by a fanfare of trumpets from the orchestra of Ligon Smith, who played music for the pageant from within a phosphorescent enclosure. Her Majesty presented King Apollo a golden globe, typical of the sphere over which she reigned, and he in regal gesture, reciprocated with a royal scepter, gift of the sun's vital power over the earth.'

Miss Katherine Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atkinson, was duchess from Cameron at the coronation and her maid was Miss Doris Davis of Sharpe. Their escorts were S. B. Hill of San Antonio and Hubert Finley of Waxahachie.

Miss Atkinson's costume was of lemon colored transparent velvet. It was fashioned on straight lines with full flounces at the bottom of the skirt, and these flounces were lined with red satin. Her train was of red velvet, bordered and lined with cloth of gold.

The dress was richly embellished with embroidered and applied designs of cloth of gold, blue velvet, sequins and jewels. Crescent and star figures were typical of the court at which she paid obeisance, that of Queen Cybele of the Planet Earth. The train was elaborately embroidered in red, green, and gold jewels, with touches of jet to add character.

A tall headpiece, gold sequins in front and red velvet in the back embroidered in crescent and star design with red, green and gold sequins to match the dress, satin slippers of lemon color, and a wand of cloth of gold and sequins completed the striking ensemble.

Her maid, Miss Davis, wore a royal costume of turquoise satin and blue tulle. Her train was of turquoise velvet lined with cloth of silver and embroidered in a design corresponding to Miss Atkinson's, the central figure being yellow and having touches of green, red and gold. Her headpiece was a tight fitting one of silver, her shoes were in turquoise shade, and she carried a turquoise feather fan.

attend meetings, pay his dues and perform committee work he would be a good citizen and a good Lion so far as he went—but his influence would be small, and the good which would accrue either to the community or himself would be limited.

When he signs the roster as a Lion he gives an implicit pledge that, in addition to all the listed duties of a Lion, he will live in its entirety the life of a real Lion. Gradually he will find himself treasuring, more and more, the welfare of his brother Lions and of all with whom he comes in contact. He will begin to realize that they are all brothers, and that he is his brother's keeper.

He will guard jealously the good name of his community, and will plan and work for its betterment.

He Will Live Lionism

He will take a deeper personal interest in everything that touches the well-being of his town—its schools and churches, its playgrounds and its industries, the health of its people and their safety, and the spirit of neighborliness which holds the people together.

All these things, and many more will come gradually into the consciousness of the Lion until at length he will find himself actually living Lionism, all day and every day. Then indeed will he be a real Lion, an asset to his club and his town and an example to all.

For Lionism is not a thing to be put on like a badge when one enters a meeting, and to be laid aside like a badge and forgotten when the meeting is adjourned. He is not a Lion in the true sense of the word. He is a man who calls himself a Christian, but who limits his Christianity to attendance in church services on Sunday, and who all the week ignores the Golden Rule in all his relations with his fellow men.

Lionism is a real, living thing, conferring its privileges and imposing its obligations alike; and the real Lion is the man who recognizes and accepts both in the same spirit—the man who vividly lives Lionism all the time.

GREAT GAMES

Football and basketball are great games; in fact, we all like a game of any kind if it is well played. Those who become known as stars at any game have necessarily spent much time in practice and study of the finer points of the game. An untrained player would not think it possible to play a winning game against a star player, yet young men and women without a business training try to play the game of business with the result that in nine cases out of ten, they make a miserable failure. A thorough business training in one of our four colleges would reserve the order of failure to where nine out of ten should make a success. A former student of ours who has made a great success, told us the other day that the money he paid for a scholarship in our school had produced larger returns for him than many money he had ever spent.

Since our four schools have the exclusive use of the Famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping and no other business college is permitted to teach them, we can graduate a thoroughly trained stenographer, secretary, bookkeeper or accountant in half the time and at half the cost of other schools. Get our free catalogue, it will make clear to you how we can soon have you in a good position, or in business for yourself.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PARTY HELD FRIDAY

PASTORS OF OTHER CHURCHES JOIN IN WELCOME TO REV. HARDIGREE

The Christian church party at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening, November 2, was under the direction of Rev. J. P. Love.

Rev. P. T. Ramsey offered the prayer and C. S. Hayes conducted the song service. Mr. Love made a short talk followed by Rev. Hardigree, after which the guests assembled in the basement for a good time.

Miss Lorene Wade sang 'Love's Old Sweet Song,' which carried Mr. Love back to his 'Old Kentucky Home.' Mr. Ramsey introduced Mrs. Hardigree who very graciously acknowledged the introduction. Mr. Love continued the fun by introducing Mr. Hardigree who made a clever talk and closed by presenting Mr. Hayes whose talk was very much in point and was followed by a solo, upon the request of Mr. Love. 'The Eyes of Texas' was then sung for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Hardigree. Clever games and contests were enjoyed by all until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

We regret very much that Rev. Hutcherson and Mr. Gail of the First Baptist church were unable to attend.

RESPONSIBILITY OF INDIVIDUAL TOLD

LIONISM AFFORDS GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE AND BIG LIFE

By Ray L. Riley
President Lions International 1929-30

When a man takes the obligation as a member of a Lions Club he is accorded a full life. At the same time he assumes a vastly greater responsibility for the use of his life.

His additional opportunities will include the association, on absolutely equal terms, with the best minds and the highest characters in his community, picked with care for their qualities of manhood, and bound together by their common interests and ambitions for the community good.

He will meet with these chosen men he will grow to know them intimately, he will form among them some of the close friendships which will enrich all the rest of his life, he will become one of them. He will gain, thru working with them, a clearer understanding of the comradeship, the brotherhood, which comes from striving for identical ideals.

He will know the thrill which comes to every man who performs some unselfish service—the relief of pain, the removal of obstacles from the life of the unfortunate, the leading of boys and girls into healthy and happy work and play and safeguarding them from evil ways, the wise regulation of the community life which will protect each in his right to pursue happiness in his own individual way.

He Will Take Pride In Work
He will find a new pride in the happiness and prosperity of his community as his club works, year after year, to build it up to higher standards. He will be gratified by the recognition which his fellow townsmen will give him, through his club, for the thing it has done for the common good.

But the responsibility of the Lion increases with equal steps as his opportunities increase. He pledged himself explicitly to meet promptly once a week with his club, to pay his dues on time; to carry on his share of work in whatever communities may claim him; to be a loyal citizen of whatever land gives him shelter and opportunity; and to obey the rules and regulations of his club and of International.

Far, far beyond these stated things goes the responsibility which the member of a Lions Club implicitly assumes. If he did no more than meekly obey the few stated obligations to

Jew, Catholic, Protestant To Improve Marriage What Is Happening? Wise Young Dinohaur

Calvin Coolidge, Governor Smith and the distinguished philanthropist, Julius Rosenwald are selected to dispose of an $8,000,000 charity fund left by Conrad Hubert.

The man who left the money wanted it distributed 'by one Jew, one Protestant and one Catholic.'

No better choice could have been made than Coolidge, Smith and Rosenwald.

But why Jew, Protestant, Catholic? Why not three good, average Americans, regardless of their religious brand?

There is too much emphasizing of 'Jew, Protestant, Catholic,' too much dividing of political offices among them.

That wasn't the idea of the men that established this country.

Great Britain proposes to bar from marriage the 'mentally unfit.' That might improve the human race, if you could identify the mentally unfit with certainty.

Some unfit will be exempt from matrimonial ostracism because they possess fortunes or important titles or names.

Others mentally unfit will escape because they are only dull, belonging to the negative class that Dante put into one of hell's disagreeable compartments.

The Rev. C. Everett Wagner, Methodist Episcopal, will start a 'happiness clinic' with philosophers engaged to lecture on happiness, how to start, how to reach it. The clinic will pay especial attention to marriage, health, work and human nature.

In starting a 'happiness clinic' it is important to remember Voltaire's advice to define the meaning of words. What is happiness?

Sheridan calls it 'an exotic of celestial birth.'

Socrates said, 'Happiness is unrepented pleasure.'

Schopenhauer called happiness 'absence of pain'—a dull definition.

Rousseau's definition, 'A good bank account, a good cook, and a good digestion' is also rather dull.

Schiller thought he had found 'earthly happiness' because he had 'lived and loved.'

There are two kinds of happiness. The lesser consists in finding the work for which you are fit and doing it.

The greater, reserved for a few, is working for others.

Samuel Insull, Jr., following in his father's industrial dinosaur tracks, as president of the Midland United Company of Chicago, tells the American Gas association that to boom the gas industry and increase sales they must cut prices, and use 'persuasive advertising and proper salesmanship.'

If young Mr. Insull follows out those ideas he will be a big industrial dinosaur some day.

Mr. Lamont, 'the' Mr. Lamont, says business is good and will continue good. Gerald Swope, president of General Electric, says 'Amen!' and means it. Orders received by his company for the three months ending September 30 were $116,688,014, against $90,328,666 in the same period last year. That increase of 29 per cent has prevailed throughout the entire year.

Viscount Aquilar, physician to King Alfonso of Spain, tells Chicago that the King 'is in beautiful health because he has never been a man of regular habits.'

He means that King Alfonso does not confine himself to any particular diet, which is intelligent. Man was made to cultivate the whole earth, and is healthiest when he uses in moderation the greatest number of earth's products, from the North to the South pole.

Charles Fourier said that if a man could read his own palate he would find it to be a correct map of the earth properly cultivated.

Madame Curie, who helped the discovery of radium, comes here to accept for the new Radium Institute at Warsaw, one gram of radium, costing $50,000, paid for by American women. You could put in a small valise radium worth more than all the wealth of Rockefeller, Ford, Secretary Mellon and George F. Baker combined, if such a radium quantity existed.

Our sun, with its source of terrific energy only guessed at by science, may contain millions of tons of radium.

We can't get at that. But we might give more poor children the benefit of the sun's light, which is accessible and costs nothing.

EX-SERVICE MEN HERE MONDAY NOVEMBER 11

ROYAL P. JETER TO DELIVER ADDRESS TO ASSEMBLED WAR VETERANS

Cameron's annual entertainment for ex-service men will be held on Monday, November 11—Armistice Day.

The meeting this year will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Cameron where at noon the special exercises will be held and a turkey dinner will be served to the ex-soldiers of all wars.

The complete program for the day which includes a football game between the Southwestern University reserves and the Cameron Yoemen is printed elsewhere in this edition.

Hon. Royal P. Jeter will deliver the patriotic address of the occasion. Mr. Jeter was at the dinner held last year and made a short talk to the ex-service men. He was at one time in the naval service of the United States and is a forceful and eloquent speaker to bring a real patriotic message to the men who have served their country under arms.

Dr. John L. Denson will speak on the benefits of government hospital service for ex-service men.

The arrangements and the menu for the dinner are under the direction of Mrs. B. P. Matocha who has been active in promoting these dinners for the ex-soldiers for several years. She has organized her assistants in the matter of preparing the dinner and the ex-soldiers are to have a real treat this year.

J. D. Baskin, post commander of the local post will have charge of the patriotic exercises and all ex-service men are urged to be in the hall around the noon hour for the program and luncheon.

TO DISCUSS PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS SEALS

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION TO FOSTER SALE IN MILAM COUNTY

Representatives from the different towns and communities of Milam county have been called to meet at the District Court room at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 9, to outline and plan a program for the 1929 Christmas Seal sale. The County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations through their Health Committee Mrs. Albert Rettig, chairman, is sponsoring the sale.

According to information that has been sent out from the Texas Public Health Association headquarters at Austin, the money that was spent in seals last year enabled the Association to carry on a State-wide educational campaign against tuberculosis and other preventable diseases. The work consists of teaching health habits to school children, physical examinations, lectures to all ages and races, literature, exhibits, clinics and tuberculosis surveys.

The State of Texas does not appropriate any money for tuberculosis work outside the State Sanatorium, therefore the Association considers it imperative that the amount raised this year from the seals be greater than in previous years.

If Milam County succeeds in raising as much as five hundred dollars from the sale of Christmas seals, sixty per cent of this amount will be kept, and forty per cent will be sent to the Texas Public Health Association. The sixty per cent which is kept may be used in any way which the council sees fit. The sale of Christmas seals will not begin until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

LION DIRECTORS IN BUSINESS SESSION

TEN NEW MEMBERS TO BE SOUGHT FOR CLUB ROLL IN CAMERON

Directors of the Lions Club met at the home of President J. C. Martin, Friday night, November 1, in the first business session of this nature since the reorganization of the club in September of this year.

The purpose of these meetings is to discuss lengthy business matters that confront the club. According to present plans, these meetings will be held monthly; however, if necessary, two will be called. All directors are earnestly requested to attend as the success of the club rests to a large extent on these meetings. The club is composed of the five officials and the chairman of each committee; however, the club has power to make changes in this order at any time.

Business problems will be thrashed out at these hours before actual presentation at the regular luncheon periods. The membership committee is instructed to give recommendations of applicants desiring to enter the club to the board for consideration before name or names be submitted to a final vote at club hours.

It is hoped that ten new members will be added to the roll in the next few months. F. E. Jackson suggested that a motion be passed granting the member who brings the largest number of new members into the club the privilege of attending the International Lions Convention to be held this year.

New members will be required to pay a fee of ten dollars. Former members are exempt this entrance fee if they enter within the next twelve months.

The secretary was instructed to order sample slips from International headquarters to be mailed members who have been absent from club meetings. At the fourth consecutive non-excusable absence, a member will be dropped from the roll. The secretary was further instructed to present a written report once per month pertaining to financial conditions of the club.

Directors present Friday night were as follows: Jim Baskin, J. P. Love, F. E. Jackson, Larry Hackebell, L. Van Perkins, B. F. Reichert, J. C. Young, W. J. Watson, E. S. Hutcherson and J. C. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Conn Moody will move in the near future into Miss Kristoff's apartment on North Crockett Street. Since they returned to Cameron they have been with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bigbee.

POULTRY SHOW PRIZE LIST IS ANNOUNCED

SECRETARY COBB LAYS PLANS FOR ANNUAL EXHIBIT ON NOVEMBER 15-16

Secretary Cobb of the Cameron Commercial Club makes public in an advertisement this week the prizes to be awarded at the annual poultry show to be held in Cameron on November 15 and 16.

The prizes to be given by Cameron merchants are the same as prizes offered last year. The show is sponsored by the Cameron Commercial Club and will attract a large number of exhibits from the choice flocks of Milam county chickens.

No extra fees will be charged to Milam county breeders, otherwise the competition will be open to all. Coming so closely upon the heels of the Cotton Palace, some large out-of-county exhibits will no doubt be entered.

The show will be in charge of W. M. Cobb, secretary, ably assisted by George Banzhaf, county agent and Miss Minnie Bartholomew, home demonstration agent.

GERMAN AT SKEEZIX ARMISTICE MORNING

Fred Gardner and his Texas University Troubadours featuring Lee and Tom Howell, former Cameron boys, will play for a morning German at Skeezix beginning at 12:01 Monday morning. A large crowd is expected to start the day's celebration off with this dance.

On Saturday night of this week the Happy Six will furnish the music for the regular Saturday night dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Slaughter and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gunn and Mrs. Guthrie attended the Queen's coronation ceremonies at the Cotton Palace Tuesday evening.

Football Banquet Planned By Lions

At a regular meeting of the Lions at Tuesday's luncheon, a motion was passed to give the Yoemen football club a banquet at the close of the current season, the exact date to be set by Coach L. Van Perkins. The entertainment committee will be assisted in preparing the banquet by L. Van Perkins.

The Yoemen have made an excellent record in football this year and are strong contenders for the district and bi-district championship and the Lions feel that the boys are entitled to a real banquet at the close of the season.

When Poppies Blow

I never see bright poppies
But what there comes to me,
A vision of white crosses
Beyond a restless sea.

They sentinel the fallen,
Who cry out in their sleep:
"Make good our sacrifices;
Make haste the faith to keep!"
When poppies red are blowing
Like crimson, pulsing hearts
That will not cease their stirring
As long as War finds marts.

Renew your vows, neglected,
O World, and banish hate,
And still the troubled voices,
Woe makes disconsolate!

J. L. CLINTON BURIED IN CAMEORN SUNDAY

RESIDENT AND FORMER BANK- ER HERE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

J. L. Clinton, 53, native of Burlington county and for many years a resident of Cameron, died at the family residence on East Thirteenth Street, Saturday afternoon, November 2, 1929 at five o'clock, following a long period of declining health.

While Mr. Clinton had been in ill health for months and his condition was considered serious, his death came as a shock to the hearts of hundreds who knew and loved him for his exceptional qualities as a friend and business man. When news came of his death the expression of sorrow was universal in the city and over this section where he had spent many years of his life.

Mr. Clinton was a man of strong character and lovable qualities and commanded many friendships. He was the life of service and devotion to family and friends and his death is a distinct loss to the community as well as to those who knew and loved him for his qualities of character. In the days of his suffering he bore with patience his misfortune and to the end held to the unselfish ideals that made his life an inspiration to his family and friends. He was a true son of the State that gave his birth and never forgot the fine traditions of the times in which he lived to manhood and spent his mature years. He numbered his friends by acquaintances and when he died there was at his bedside the hearts of many to sustain him in his last hours.

Active in business he was widely known. For many years he was cashier of the First National Bank. After his service with the bank he became associated with H. M. Hefley and others in the organization of the Texas Trust Company which later was granted banking privileges and operated for a time, then merged with the First National Bank. His health would not permit further service with the bank and for a time he was associated with his uncle, O. P. Storm of Harlingen in the sale of real estate.

Funeral services for J. L. Clinton, who died at the family residence on East Thirteenth Street Saturday afternoon at five o'clock after an illness of almost a year, were held at the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Rev. P. T. Ramsey officiating.

Mr. Clinton was born December 9, 1876 in Burlington county near Caldwell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clinton. He lived in Central Texas all of his life, coming to Cameron in 1905. On March 7, 1906 he was married to Miss Grace Stovall, who died on December 26, 1913. Four daughters were born to this union, all of whom survive him.

Mr. Clinton was married a second time on October 15, 1916 to Miss Lola Carothers of Houston.

Besides his widow, Mr. Clinton is survived by his four daughters, Misses Maurine, Lola, Mildred and Grace Clinton; his mother, Mrs. J. W. Clinton; a brother, W. T. Clinton of Tahoka; and an uncle, O. P. Storm of Harlingen.

Green Brothers had charge of funeral arrangements. The Masonic Lodge had charge of services at the church and at the grave, and interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Max Collins, W. A. Bonds, B. F. Bonds, J. L. Barmore, J. E. Mangum and H. M. Hefley. Honorary pallbearers were R. P. Jeter, J. M. Ralston, R. L. Batte, A. H. Baskin, E. Vogelsang Jr., W. S. Lamkin, Dr. M. C. Sapp, S. A. Cottle, Penn Wolf, Giles Avriett, Dr. Tom Denson, Robert McLane, W. H. Triggs, A. C. Freeman, A. J. Triggs, Pope Sapp and W. R. Webb of Gause.

Out of town people attending the services were Mrs. Sam Taylor of Ft. Worth, O. P. Storm of Harlingen, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Simpson, Edgar Simpson and Henry Simpson of Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Peyton of Temple, F. Bravard and W. F. Carothers of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clinton of Tahoka and Mrs. S. E. Clinton of Tanglewood.

Southwestern Will Play Yoemen Monday

An unusual football card is due for Armistice Day crowds in Cameron Monday when the Southwestern University reserves play the annual Soldier Day classic against the Yoemen. Coach Perkins has been putting the Yoemen through vigorous training for this game and believes he can take the big end of the score.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Slaughter and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pleas spent Sunday in Waco and visited Miss Euline Slaughter, a student at Four C Business College.

YOEMEN ARE VICTORS IN CALDWELL GAME

TAKE DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP IN CLOSE GAME WON BY A TOUCHBACK

Cameron has won the district football championship by defeating Caldwell in the annual grid classic here last Friday afternoon 2 to 0.

The only score of the game came late in the fourth quarter when it seemed that neither team could score. The game had raged back and forth over the field for nearly four quarters with neither side making appreciable gains although in the number of first downs Caldwell led by a wide margin.

A bad pass from center to the Caldwell quarterback cost the Hornets the game. When the ball was snapped back it flew wild and was recovered by the quarterback who was downed by a swarm of Yoe forwards who scored the touchback for their team to win. A sensational passing attack of the Hornets coupled with a penalty of fifteen yards for delaying the game took the ball within scoring distance of the maroon goal but with just a play left a pass was thrown and batted down by the Yoemen and the game ended. The Yoemen have been defeated six years in succession by the Caldwell team. The victory on last Friday was a long sought revenge for the defeats of the past years and the wildest celebration ever seen at a local game followed the pistol shot of the time keeper when the end of the game came.

Cameron fans swarmed over the field and celebrated the victory for it not only meant victory over the ancient foe but a district championship.

The Yoemen were outplayed in all except one quarter of the game. The Caldwell team was a heavier combination and at times took the ball to the shadow of the maroon goal but the heroic Yoemen fought back the Hornets and kept their goal safe. Coach Perkins played a masterful game and his team gave evidence of his training.

ZONE WORRIES FOR HUNTERS ARE PASSED

BAG LIMIT ALL HE MUST REMEMBER NOW SAYS GAME COMMISSIONER

Austin, Texas, Nov. 5.—Zone worries for hunters, so far as ducks are concerned, ended November 1, as in both north and south zones from that date the open seasons run parallel until their close January 31; no changes having been made and there being no conflict with federal regulations, it was announced at the Game Department today.

While there will be little for the hunter to remember about ducks but the bag limit he will still be busy keeping track of the dove zones. The Federal seasons on mourning doves in Texas are, for the North Zone September 1 to December 15, and for the south zone November 1 to December 31. The general State season for the North Zone is September 1 to October 31, and that for the South Zone October 1 to November 30. In addition, various local seasons have been fixed by legislature for the eastern section of the State in both zones. The season during which mourning doves may be shot in Texas without violating either Federal regulations or State laws are as follows:

Another Link to Be Closed Soon on Highway No. 43

Announcement has been made that the State Highway Commission will proceed at once with work on Highway No. 43 through Leon county. More than a million dollar bond issue was authorized in Leon county for the permanent improvement of roads two years ago, but the bonds have not been sold because of adverse market conditions. The Highway Commission has voted now to advance the money necessary for the project on Highway 43, from the Robertson county line to the Anderson county line, and the work will commence in the near future. This announcement will be of great interest to the people of this county because a part of this road is the main thoroughfare between Seale, in this county, and Fratin.—Calvert Tribune.

Pastor Praises The Chevrolet Coach For Operation

Atlanta, Nov. 4.—Paying high tribute to the economy and performance of the low-priced automobile, especially as a means of long distance travel, the Rev. G. W. Gasque, pastor of the Episcopal church of the Incarnation, today recited some of the accomplishments of his new six cylinder Chevrolet coach on a recent 10,618 mile loop tour of the western half of the United States, during which he averaged 22.3 miles to the gallon of gas.

Accompanying Dr. Gasque on the seven weeks adventure were Mrs. Gasque and their young daughter, Anna Lee.

The long trip was made on schedule time so that the minister could fill speaking engagements in prominent Episcopal churches along the way. The route led from Atlanta to Chicago, by way of Nashville, Evansville and Indianapolis, thence across the northwestern states to Seattle, down the Pacific Coast through Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles and back home across the desert country of Arizona and New Mexico.

A highlight was the climb of Pike's Peak over a tortuous roadway that stretches 13 miles long the mountain side. Dr. Gasque reports that the car carried its party to the summit without heating the motor. Many other cars attempting the climb were forced to halt along the roadway to cool off before continuing, he said.

Dr. Gasque kept an expense book of the trip, which discloses interesting facts about the performance of the car. Having been newly purchased when the trip began, the car was not extended during the first 500 miles of driving. During this period it averaged 18 miles to the gallon, the book showed.

When the car was broken in, however, the gas mileage was greatly improved. For the entire 10,618 miles, which included driving in cities and in open country, the Chevrolet consumed 476 gallons of fuel, an average of 22.3 miles to the gallon. The gas bill on the trip was $107.18. Sixteen and one half gallons of lubricant were used, costing $22.25. The minister's book showed no expenditures for mechanical repairs.

They've Changed The "Fumble" Rule—

To Save the Player whose Single Misplay Might Lose the Year's "Big Game"

WHEN football rule-makers act—there's a good reason always. The ruling that a fumbled ball is dead if recovered by the opposing team, means that a single lapse in the heat of play no longer will go down in college history as "the play that lost the game." It means that while a player may err, the team-work of eleven men has a chance to overcome the loss.

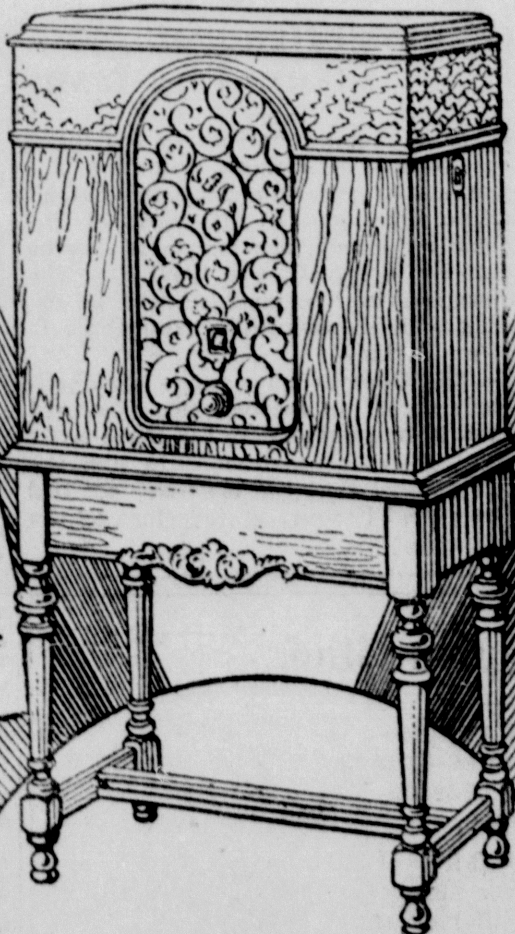

For each one of us in life, there is the chance to write our own rule to cut down the damage from "fumbles" of plans or opportunities. One of the best safeguards is a steadily growing money reserve—and here is a safe, profitable place for yours.

COUNTY BANKERS TO EFFECT ORGANIZATION

MEETING TO BE HELD IN ROCK-DALE TUESDAY NIGHT—DAIRY-
ING MAY BE DISCUSSED

A meeting of the bankers of Milam county will be held in Rockdale, Tuesday evening, November 5, for the purpose of organizing a Milam county Bankers Association. Plans for the meeting have not been perfected at this writing, but it will probably take the form of a dinner and round-table discussion. All county banks have signified their intention of having representatives present, it is stated.

There is a growing interest among Milam county bankers in the work of promoting the dairying industry in this county. This interest was made manifest by the attendance of bankers at a dairy meeting held in Cameron on the evening of October 21, at which time representatives of the Borden Milk Plant of Waco, were present as well as members of the Waco Chamber of Commerce. Among the latter was W. W. Woodson, president of the First National Bank of Waco, who addressed the meeting and outlined the plan by which Waco bankers are assisting farmers of that territory in obtaining good milk cows. Waco banks have entered into the plan wholeheartedly, and any Waco farmer may obtain a loan, with which to buy dairy cows, provided he can convince the bank that he is in position to take proper care of the cows after he gets them, and that he is raising sufficient feedstuffs for them.

It is known that local bankers are interested in this matter and while no program of discussion has yet been formulated for the meeting next Tuesday night, it is probable that the dairy cow matter will come before the meeting. However, the principle object of the meeting is to formulate a county association of bankers for the general good of the banking business in this county.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mrs. J. C. Martin To Address Parent-
Teachers Thursday

Mrs. J. C. Martin will be the speaker at the next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, to be held at the Yoe High Library at 3:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, November 14. The subject will be 'The Study Circle: Its Purpose and How Organized.'

It is urged that the mothers of

Cameron attend this meeting whether they are members of the P. T. A. or not. It is an accepted fact in these times that the profession of motherhood needs study as well as any other profession. Mrs. Martin will discuss child care in every age, from the preschool on through the high school days. It is hoped that a number of study groups will be formed as a part of the P. T. A. work.

Epworth League
At Church Party

Climaxing the Halloween season, which was filled with parties of all kinds, was the social enjoyed by members of the Epworth Junior League of the Methodist church last Friday evening.

The group gathered on the church lawn, and in their fancy costumes and masks paraded around the public square. They then returned to the church, were greeted by a ghost and playd in the basement which was gay with Halloween decorations.

Refreshments consisted of hot chocolate and sandwiches. It was estimated that some 250 children enjoyed the frolic. Miss Mollie Moore is sponsor of the Junior League.

Junior Class Host
To School Students

The junior class of Yoe High school entertained at the Country Club Friday evening, having as their guests the remainder of the Yoe High student body and the visiting students.

The class colors of pink and green from the Caldwell high school, were used in the decorations, which consisted of crepe paper festoons, queen's crown and pink roses.

With Miss Arnette Ryan playing the piano, a grand march opened the entertainment, which consisted of dancing and table games. Miss Ivy Armstrong directed some of the guests in games on the porches.

Teachers present were the class sponsors, Misses Mary Lake Henderson and Velda Walker and Mr. Guy Newton, and Misses Ivy Armstrong and Neeley. Other chaperones were Mrs. Gaither, Mrs. Lesovsky, Mrs. Evans, Miss Mae Marshall, Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. John Ryan.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

Mrs. Ernest Eggert, newly elected president of the Presbyterian Auxiliary to succeed Mrs. John A. Geen, who has moved to Drallas, presided at the business session of the Auxiliary held at the church Monday afternoon. With the acceptance of the position of secretary of spiritual life by Mrs. C.

W. Lawrence, all vacancies have been filled.

Christmas cards for the annual sale were ordered. It was decided to have a Bazaar the first week in December, more detailed plans to be announced later. Presbyterian churches thruout the State are planning to promote a mammoth evangelistic campaign beginning January - and lasting through Easter. Every church in the State will have an evangelistic meeting. The ladies decided at their meeting Monday the preacher whom they would attempt to secure for Cameron. A more definite announcement will be made later.

Members will meet in circles next Monday afternoon.

CHRISTIAN AID

The Missionary Society members of the Christian church met at the church Monday afternoon and went in a body to Tracy to the home of Mrs. Cecil Plate, where the meeting was held. The program was led by Mrs. R. H. Harris, and she was assisted by Mesdames Raymond Beard, Jim Adams, W. M. Ryan and G. C. Walters. The pastor of the church, Rev.

Hardigree, gave an inspirational talk.

A feature of the program was a vocal duet by Mrs. Hardigree and Mr. Curtis Hays, who has charge of the music in the Christian church revival being conducted at the Presbyterian church.

A social half hour followed the program at which time the hostess served a salad plate and grape juice.

WHAT WE THINK
By FRANK DIXON

We do not have much on hand this week, so we are going to 'vent our spleen' as the old saying goes.

The editor of the average country newspaper is scared stiff every time he sees his shadow for fear something will slip into his paper whereby someone cusses a little or stops his paper.

Old Ed Howe published a paper, the Atchison Globe for years in fear of the public. Finally he could afford to publish a paper monthly wherein he writes and says just what he pleases and when a subscriber kicks he gives his money back and stops his paper permanently.

When we can afford it, that is the kind of a paper we are going to publish.

We notice quite often some con-founded liar gets a head liner on the front pages. We would tell them about it, but what's the use.

We want to repeat that the greatest delight of our life is the fact that no one can take anything with them when they leave this terrestrial sphere.

Our most worthless are often well supplied with this world's goods.

After all it is the fool things that interest us.

What we are interested in, is to know whether young Coolidge's wife gets his breakfast for him. That is the acid test whether or not she is modern or old fashioned.

We believe that a lot of the meanness in men could be cured if there was someone around big enough to give them an all fired good spanking.

We are too busy to indulge in wise cracks.

We know some mighty cheap skates who ride in big autos.

the midnight Misadventure of Gregory Jones

A crash brought Mrs. Gregory Jones bolt upright in bed, her heart pounding.

"Why!" demanded her husband savagely, nursing a bruised shin and groping for the light switch. "Why did you have to leave that chair there?"

In the front hall the telephone rang again, insistently. Jones shivered in the draft from the open window, and without waiting for a reply, disappeared through the doorway. Petulantly, his voice drifted back to her.

"No, Eleanor is not here. Yes, we're expecting her tomorrow. Tell her what I'll tell you, young man, that it's an imposition to wake folks at this time of night! And I'll deliver no messages!"

The receiver banged on the hook. Jones, muttering to himself, stumbled back down the hall.

"That settles it!" he exclaimed, still shivering. "Tomorrow, I'll have a telephone put in this bedroom."

Mrs. Jones smiled drowsily, snuggled deep into her pillow.

"Where have I heard that before," she murmured. "Tomorrow, I'll order one, myself."

Telephones where you need them save time, patience—and midnight misadventures.

Few know that one or two additional instruments cost considerably less than the single telephone they now have!

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of your telephone service.

Animals and Reptiles

Worshiped by Mankind

It is a fact that cows, on account of their supposedly sacred character, are allowed to roam at will in India but the animals are venerated or respected rather than actually worshipped. Real worship of cattle, however, has existed at other periods of the world's history. It was common among the ancient Egyptians, who possessed the cult of the bull Apis. When one representative of Apis died, a new bull was sought and specially educated in sacred matters for four months. Celebration of its birthday was held annually, with sacrifices of white oxen, and it was unlawful for women to go near it. Apis was supposed to have oracular powers, and after death, was mummified. Another animal that has received great respect has been the white elephant, which is believed, in Siam, to carry a dead man's soul. It cannot be purchased, and feasts are held for it and a funeral when it dies. But perhaps the most feared and respected of all is the serpent. At Whydah, in Africa, there is a serpent temple, and these reptiles in many parts of Africa are regarded as incarnations of dead relatives.

Worcester Annoyed by

Exuberance of Youth

One has but to delve into biography to discover that even the great were beset with human frailties just like less famous mortals. The daughter of the poet Longfellow, in her memoirs, tells how the children kept the community on edge.

Longfellow's neighbors did not invariably share his indulgence toward his children. The lexicographer, Worcester, was a next door neighbor in Cambridge. A little pond, where the children skated, lay between the two places. The boys, of course, were noisy, which was not inlaid at home.

But dictionary making is not like poetry and the dignified Worcester, disturbed, frequently came down and chased the children off his end of the pond, ordering them, in words not to be found in his dictionary, to keep their racket at home.

Golden Age of Labor

Probably at no other time in all history was the lot of the laborer nearer a "golden age" than it was in the fifteenth and early part of the sixteenth centuries. At no time were wages, relatively speaking, so high, and at no time was food so cheap. In England, parliament made constant attempts to reduce the wages, but they kept high and finally became customary. Eventually, of course, living costs mounted and the laborer's lot again approached its norm. But during the years of his paradise the hours were short; eight being the common day's work; the period of winter wages was brief, being December and January; the rate was just as good whether the laborer was employed for a day or a year; and in some cases he was paid for every day including his Sundays and holidays off.

—Detroit News.

Wires for Telephones

Just how much business is dependent upon the telephone is indicated by the amount of wire for telephone service which must be introduced into a great office building. In the Equitable Trust building—33 stories high—more than 55,000 cubic feet of lead-covered cable, weighing 23 tons and containing over 9,000,000 feet of wire, were necessary for telephone facilities. Other inside wiring amounted to more than 1,000,000 feet. The Graybar building—29 stories high—has more than 19,500 feet of cable, weighing 13½ tons. The telephone wire in this building amounts to more than 6,000,000 feet.

Poor Susie

It was Friday and the pupils were due to recite various things they had learned during the week. Dorothy said she would give a proverb, and when her turn came stood up and solemnly said, "Susie Adam forgets Susie Adam."

The teacher gasped and called her back. "What on earth is that?" "Quotation!" said Dorothy proudly. "Say it again!" "Susie Adam forgets Susie Adam." "But," said the teacher, "when did we have that?" "Monday." The teacher turned to her diary and saw for Monday: "Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm."—Boston Transcript.

Labor of Love

"Uncle" Joab Powell, circuit rider of the early days of the Nineteenth century, whose field of operations covered Oregon, as well as Missouri and Tennessee, was not "out for the money." In fact, he took no remuneration, asking only fare for himself and feed for his horses. "Just charge my bill to the Lord," he would say as he mounted his cayuse to ride away from the farmhouse where he had been entertained while preaching in the neighborhood. —Kansas City Times.

Silver Lining

Gen. William Mitchell, of aviation fame, said in the course of a political speech in New York:

"We must always look on the bright side, friends. We should emulate the little girl.

"The little girl had two pets, a cat and a canary, that she dearly loved. But the cat ate the canary!

"Did the little girl despair? No. Looking on the bright side, she said: 'I have two pets in one now.'

FOOTBALL VICTORY INSPIRES POEMS
WRITTEN BY SEVENTH GRADE PUPILS

We Won

When the game did start,
Thump! Thump! went my heart;
But when we made the home run,
There came the cry, 'We Won!'

—Maidell Smith.

We Won

After losing seven years,
There were shed many tears
By the Caldwell team,
We Won

We Won

By brawn and by muscle
Our Yoemen did hustle,
And from the Hornets,
We Won

—William Slaughter.

We Won

'We' is a boy ten years old
When he slipped off, a lie he never told;
'We' was good; 'We' was bad,
In fact you could easily make him mad.
It was on a cold but frisky day
'We' went merrily out to play.

'We' was on the football team,
He never lost it always seemed
He hit the line hard with his 'bean,'
He would tear around like loose steam
'We' was strong; 'We' was large,
He was like a great big barge.

'We' was mighty; 'We' was great
'We' was the fastest boy in the state.
Anyhow, 'We' won!
—Frank M. Newton.

We Won

It was the first day of November
And just the kind of a day
For a fine game of football
For Yoe High to play.

The first quarter past
And so did the half
And nothing had happened
But then—in the last.

Our team had the pep
But Caldwell did it lack
And just on that account
They made a touch-back.

Then when the game was said to be over,
I thought as I listened to the yells
And the cheers
What a good team Yoe Hi has
To beat Caldwell who hadn't
Been beat for seven whole years.
—Patsy McGregor.

We Won

The captain caught the forward pass,
And many a man he dumped on the grass,
He crossed the goal like a shot from a gun,
And I'll tell the world, We Won!
—Harley Modesett.

We Won

The 'Caldwell Hornets' to Cameron came,
To beat us at the football game;
But the 'Yoemen',
Just like bowmen,
Won the football game.
—Carroll Green.

We Won

It was Friday, that the game was played
Victory was in the hands of the eleven,
When they marched on the field to save
By the boy that was number seven.

The last of the quarter was nearly up
When the boy tackled a ton
That set him back of the goal and up
Went loud yells—'We Won!'
—Wilson Mode.

We Won

T'was on last Friday evening
That Caldwell came to town,
They thought that in the first half
They'd score a touch-down.

But Cameron got to working
That football winning play,
When Cameron gets to working,
It always saves the day.

At last at the end of the game
When the referee fired his gun,
All the Caldwell team could hear
Was 'Hooray, We Won!'
—Roy Baskin, Jr.

We Won

When Caldwell got beat

Gosh, how they did run
Because they knew
That our Yoemen had won.
—Alton Key.

We Won

First time in seven years,
Our dear old Yoemen won;
Cameron gave all the cheers,
While Caldwell gave not a one.
—Gwayne Shipp.

We Won

We had a game of football today,
It was a tough one, I say,
When the ball was a fumble
All the boys did tumble
We had most of the fun
For We Won!
—Ralph Koelph.

We Won

On the first day of November
Old Caldwell came to town,
She was out for a district championship,
She was out to win renown.

So she invaded Cameron
The Cameron team to beat.
She had beaten the Yoemen in past years
And thought they would have a treat.

But in the fourth quarter
The Yoemen got a break
The center passed the ball too high
The Caldwell men did shake.

The Yoemen tore the Caldwell line
And the receiver they did smear.
The score was 2 to 0 for Cameron
For the first time in many a year.
—Giles Avriett.

We Won

To play football is mighty rough
Everyone must do his stuff
The stuff was done,
And Cameron won!
—Mertice Lunsford.

We Won

Cameron defeated Caldwell,
Everyone said the game was swell
Each player on the team had his fun
Three cheers went up when Cameron won —Olga Hatch.

Miscellaneous

My father and I went duck hunting.
We killed a crane and took it up to a Mexican's house and asked him if he wanted a duck.

He said, 'No look much like duck.' A few days later the Mexican came to town. Dad said, 'How was the duck?'

The Mexican said, 'Maybe so it was duck, but me no like that duck.' —Carroll Green.

One day our reading assignment was to find out all we could about Oliver Wendell Holmes. Claire Nell was so eager to get through, that she found something that began with an 'O' and began reading. When she got through she found that she was reading about 'Olive Oil.'

This proves that we are very careless about some things and too anxious to get through. We all had a good laugh over that.

—Gertrude Holder.

Miss Bragg, 'What tribe of Indians live in the Western part of Texas?' Boys, 'English.'

Roderick Long, a student of 7C, has been absent many weeks. We all miss him and shall be glad when he will be able to come back to school.

Robert Crowell, an active pupil of 7B, has a broken arm. He likes perimmons.

Charlie Smith and Frank M. Newton attended the Cotton Palace Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They had a great time so they reported.

Patsy McGregor attended the Cotton Palace Sunday.

Wilder Graham, the tallest boy in school, visited Chrisman this past week end.

Tom Osborne rode from Salem to Burlington Sunday. He was very careful Monday and couldn't play ball or even walk very easily.

School Spirit

Such an easy thing to have and yet there are scores that lack this great spirit. The lessons are not hard unless you make them. The real key to 'School Spirit' is, do not fight your school-pack. If you cheat in getting your lessons, half of the spirit is gone there, for school is a place to gain knowledge for your own benefit. If you are a good citizen of your school you have the right school spirit.

Value of Specializing

Recognized Long Ago

About 2,400 years ago Herodotus, the Greek historian, wrote this about the Egyptian: "The art of medicine among them is distributed thus: Each physician is a physician of one disease and of no more. And the whole country is full of physicians, for some profess themselves to be physicians of the eyes, others of the head, others of the teeth, others of the affections of the stomach, and others of the more obscure ailments." . . . And here we've been going along imagining that we have something new when we say we are living in an age of specialists. Every age is an age of specialists, and always has been—even in caveman days when each clan had its champion spear thrower. The key to wealth and fame is specialization, doing some one thing better than others can.—Capper's Weekly.

Balsa Lightest of Woods

Balsa (Ochroma lagopus), called gano in Porto Rico and lanera in Cuba, is a common tree, particularly along the seashores in the West Indies and Central America. It is said to be called moho in British Honduras, lanilla in Guatemala and guano in Spanish Honduras. The tree is rarely more than 40 or 50 feet in height and the trunk is sometimes from four to five feet in diameter. The wood of balsa is nearly white or sometimes tinted with red, showing practically no distinction between heartwood and sapwood. It has a silky texture, is rather coarse but straight grained, and is the lightest of all woods, even lighter than true cork. A sample of balsa from Trinidad exhibited at Philadelphia in 1876 had a specific gravity of .120, or about 7½ pounds per cubic foot.

Explorer, 'Just to show you, the advance of civilization in the past, the Eskimos used to eat candles for dessert.'

Miss Palmer, 'And now I suppose they eat electric light bulbs.'

Wilbur, 'Are your folks superstitious?'

Jack, 'Oh yes, we never sleep 13 in a bed at our house.'

Doctor, 'Deep breathing, you understand, destroys microbes.'

Ruth, 'But doctor, how can I force them to breathe deeply?'

Constipation Troubles Relieved
By Help of Theford's Black-
Draught, Says Tennessee
Coal Miner.

Tracy City, Tenn.—"My work makes it necessary for me to use a medicine which will give quick relief from constipation and indigestion," says Mr. Lee Nunley, a well-known coal miner of this place.

"For forty years or more," he says, "I have taken Black-Draught for these troubles, and have always found it reliable. At times, I suffer from bad spells of indigestion, following constipation.

"Many years ago, a friend told me to try Black-Draught, as it was a vegetable remedy and would not harm my body, so that is how I came to use it. I make a tea of it, and take a sip of it after meals. I soon begin to feel better when I start this treatment.

"My work is very confining, and my color gets bad and I get sluggish. I lose my 'pep' and don't feel like going. After I take a course of Black-Draught I feel fine again."

Manufacture of Theford's Black-Draught began nearly 100 years ago, and many people tell of having taken it all their lives when in need of a laxative or cathartic.

There's a Difference in Towns

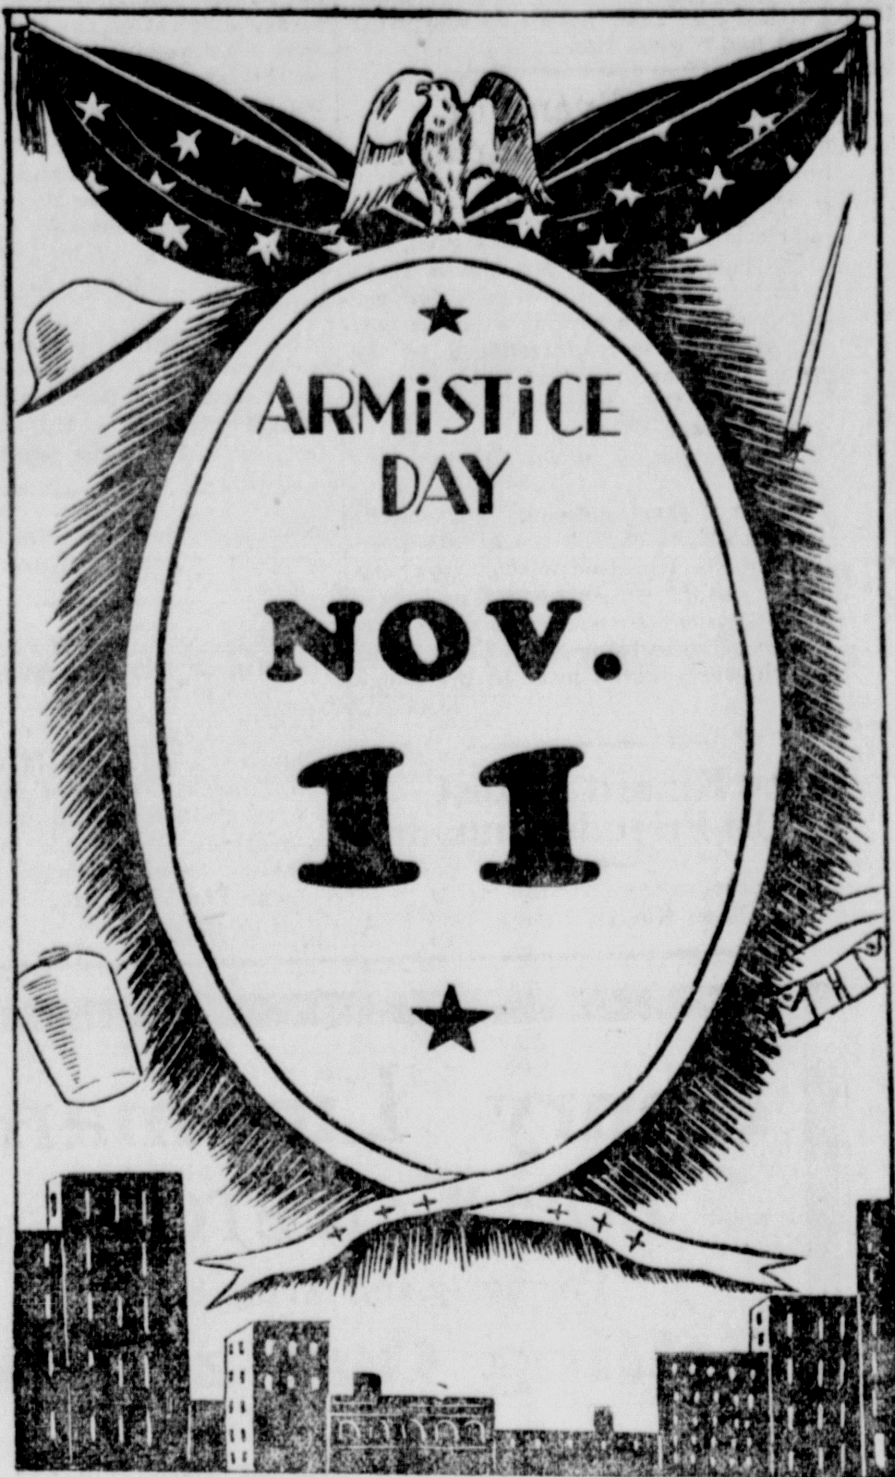

Go into some towns and you will note that when a proposition comes up that has to do with the progress or welfare of the community, that everyone in town it seems, gets back of it and works and gives time and money to put it across.

When the job is done, the community turns its attention to something else and with the same, whole souled co-operation it turns in and puts it across.

Drop into another town and watch what happens when a like proposition comes up. A few will turn in and work for it, neglect their business and give time and money and effort to do something that will benefit the whole community. The others will stand around and do nothing. Blind to the good features of the proposition they will pick little flaws on which they can knock and give this as an excuse for their lack of co-operation.

A town can not keep secret which faction rules it. You can tell it by one look at the town.

'PARITY' FOR AGRICULTURE MEANS BILLIONS FOR INDUSTRY

American industry is crying that it must have new outlets abroad.

Has it ever occurred to industry that the greatest and richest potential market in the world lies in the interior of a country called the United States and along the valley called the Mississippi?

Has it ever occurred to industry that a doubling of the buying power of this region would do more to assure industry's continued expansion and prosperity than almost anything else the human mind could conceive?

And has it further ever occurred to industry that the direct, immediate, and logical way to increase the buying power of this region is to put its shoulder behind the movement to hold the Republican party to its pledges to agriculture?

A literal fulfillment of the Republican party's pledges would mean a substantial increase in the buying power of the agricultural area of the United States.

The present income enjoyed by agricultural America is approximately 12 billion dollars.

Were agriculture enjoying the same proportionate income that the rest of the United States is enjoying that income would be 18 billion dollars.

'Parity' for agriculture means just that: an added annual income of roughly 6 billion dollars.

Were this ideal realized, who would get the additional 6 billion dollars—agriculture or industry.

Obviously, both.

Agriculture would promptly turn over the bulk of the sum to industry, in exchange for the products which industry has to sell.

Industry would profit by the increased buying power of American agriculture just as it has already profited by the increased buying power of American labor.

'Parity' for agriculture means nothing more and nothing less than enormously increased sales for industry. Why, then, shouldn't industry exert all the vast influence it has at its command to hold the tariff revision to the purposes outlined by President Hoover?

Widen the spread between agriculture's costs and prices by $1000 per individual farmer per year, and you place at industry's disposal the colossal added buying power of 7 billion dollars per year.

Where else in the world has industry the target of a 7 billion dollar market to shoot at?

The tariff can be so revised as further to weaken agriculture's buying power or it can be so revised as greatly to expand it.

Surely industry should be able to see that a weakened buying power on the part of agriculture would represent to industry a calamity of the first magnitude.

Surely it should be able to see that its interests all lie on the side of expanding agriculture's buying power via the plan of tariff revision origination platform.

Why should industry worry itself about foreign markets when the world's greatest market lies right at its door?

Iowa is a better market than India, Kansas is better than Kamchatka, and Minnesota is better than Mesopotamia.

The will to buy is in the west. There no want needs to be created, no racial prejudice needs to be broken down, no old-age habit needs to be overcome.

There sales-resistance is at its lowest, and there foreign competition is virtually non-existent.

There no anti-American legislation needs to be feared.

There no salesman has to be taught a new language, and no adjustment has to be made to strange commercial practices.

Industry should acquaint itself with the fact that the 'greatest foreign market' in the world lies along the Mississippi valley.

Nor should it lose sight of the fact that every added billion dollars a year for agriculture means an added billion dollars a year for industry.

'Parity' for agriculture means billions for industry.

Isn't it time that industry began to see straight on this matter?

Isn't it time that it caught the idea that instead of opposing agriculture's case before congress it should be agriculture's most vigorous champion and special pleader?—Minneapolis Tribune.

SHALL WE CELEBRATE PEACE OR WAR?

Armistice Day, the day on which actual fighting ceased in the War of the Nations, is so significant that the day, November 11, has been made a national holiday by the British, Americans and French. This year we celebrate the eleventh anniversary of the day.

It seems most important however in thinking of the day that our thoughts turn to peace rather than war. That seems to be the general trend of thought of today's statesmen.

Yet, Private Harold Peat—the great Canadian war hero—points out in his lectures that war and peace are not really political questions but questions of education.

Thank God, the schools are beginning to realize this. For decades past, our historians have won our wars for us so easily—the United States taking usually fifty pages to tell the story of the Revolutionary War while the British tell it in four lines; the Canadians using forty pages to tell of Queenstown Heights and Lundys Lane while the 'Staters' historians seldom mention these battles—that we all knew when we were through the grades that our country could lick the stuffing out of the other fellow's country in about two weeks.

Let us, as the days go by remember to teach a little more of the hell of war and a little less of its glories. And let us build more monuments to heroes of peace—rather than to the heroes of war—splendid as they have been—for after all has not peace done much more for the world than war.

Competition has reached such a stage in the tire game that a car owner can get more for his money when it comes to tires than anything else he buys. It used to be that 2500 or 3000 miles was a good record for a tire. Now unconditional guarantees can be secured on cheap tires of 16,000 to 25,000 miles. Also we used to hear that the chemists would have to find a substitute for rubber. This, when all the use to which rubber was put was pencil erasers and overshoes. Today there are a thousand times as much rubber used as formerly and it is cheaper than ever. The man who says a thing can't be done these days is taking a big chance.

The members of the Christian church take this method of thanking the members of the Presbyterian church for the use of their magnificent building. We are very grateful to those of other denominations who sang in the choir and we thank the local pastors for the sermons contributed and services rendered. We appreciate the things each and every individual has done in making possible this ten days' revival and the promotion of its success. We feel that much good has been derived from our efforts in this worthy cause and are happy that such a fine fellowship exists.

Saturday evening Mr. Hardigree's sermon will be 'God's Best Institution.' Sunday morning 'Working Together,' and Sunday evening, 'The More Excellent Way.'

The meeting will continue through Wednesday, November 13. Mr. Hardigree will do the preaching and his sermons will be: Monday evening, 'A Change of Heart,' Tuesday evening, 'Salvation,' and Wednesday evening, 'The Christian Growth.'

A prayer service is held at the Presbyterian church each morning at ten o'clock. A period of thirty minutes is spent in studying the Bible and praying. The congregation is reading a chapter a day in the Book of John and the fourteenth chapter should be reached by next Wednesday. The meeting will close next Wednesday evening and Rev. Hardigree and Mr. Hayes will start a week's revival in Rockdale at the Christian church on Thursday evening, November 14.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By John McRae

In Flanders Fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The lark still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high
If you break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

SAN ANTONIO CAPITAL MAKING AN EFFORT TO BLOCK ACREAGE ON WEST SIDE OF JOHNSON NO. 1 FOR A TEST

Local parties co-operating with San Antonio capital and oil operators are making an effort to block 300 acres of land immediately west and south-west of the old original Johnson well for a test in the near future. The San Antonio parties have agreed to begin operations within 30 days after the acreage has been secured and put up a sufficient forfeit to guarantee good faith on their part. So far there has never been a test well on the west side of the old Johnson well, while there have been several drilled and proven to be dry on the east side, which leads all local people and also land owners in the vicinity of the old well to believe that the vein and fault are on the west side. The Michalk-Clark well being drilled on the Gilchrist home place, north-west of the old original well, is looked upon very favorably by geologists and oil scouts of making a well, due to its westerly direction. It is sincerely hoped that the land owners of the vicinity of the locality trying to be blocked will cooperate to the extent of giving their cooperation to get this test made on the southwest side. Already 150 acres have been pledged for the block of 300 acres which is required to get the test made.—Thorn-dale Champion.

Texas Lady Says She Was Up One Day and Down the Next. Pains Stopped After She Took Cardui.

Terrell, Texas.—"I was run-down and nervous, and for several months my health had not been good," says Mrs. Louis Wieland, of this place. "I was up one day and down the next. I never felt like doing anything. "I worried all the time, and could not sleep well at night. "Periodically I would suffer from pains in my back and sides. I would have awful headaches, and would feel dull and dizzy. "My sister had taken Cardui, and she persuaded me to try it. She said to me one day: 'If you will only try it, you will see for yourself how much good it will do you.' So I got a bottle of Cardui and began to take it. It was not long until I felt fine. I got stronger, and my nerves did not bother me any more. "The pains stopped coming in my back, and I could do my work without any trouble. I think Cardui is a fine medicine."

The fact that so many women have been helped, in their efforts to build up their health, by taking Cardui, should encourage you to try this well-known medicine. A purely vegetable, medicinal tonic. For sale by all druggists. NC-208

Makes and holds its friends not only because of its exceptional merit but because we put behind it a spirit of courtesy and a maintenance system that is almost as good as the car. The interest we take in the customer adds just that much to the desirability of buying here.

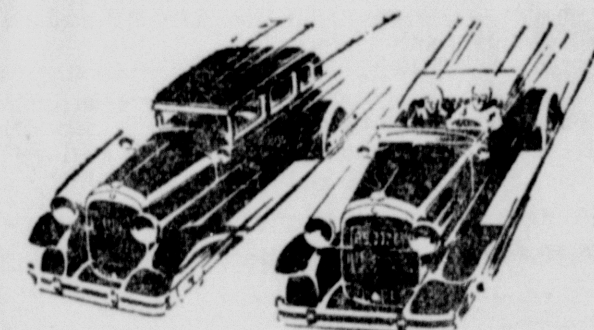

The Essex is the best of its kind and that has been proven. Those who have bought cars and tires and other merchandise here know that the service we render is the best also.

The New Essex Super Six is a wonder car. The factory deserves that credit. We cannot build Essex cars here but we have spent days and nights perfecting our service to match it. The Essex owner will testify about the spirit of our business.

ESSEX

first prize
for reliability

The Grand Prize for reliability in the 15-day running of the famous "Tour de France" was awarded to Essex the Challenger. The two Essex entries finished the race without a single penalty—the only cars with perfect scores—winning by a great margin over the strong field of high-priced American and European cars. . . . Not only the Grand Prize, but the Ansaldo Cup, for quick getaway; the Lyonnais Cup, the Pyrenees Cup, the Atlantic Cup, the Cup of Brittany, the Cup of Normandy and the Cup of the North were also taken by Essex the Challenger.

Performs Like a Costly Car Because Built Like a Costly Car

Essex the Challenger looks and acts like a costly car because it is built like a costly car. Its enormous success has inspired others to claim qualities "like Essex". Yet everything about it—appearance, performance, comfort and luxurious smoothness—mark it apart and altogether different.

To be like Essex without building like Essex is a goal no car has found possible. More than 200,000 owners know the outright facts. You can know them too in 30 minutes behind the wheel.

You can only find comparison for Essex qualities among costly cars, because in design and construction it stands with the practice of the fine car field.

All These "Extras" at No Extra Cost

Its good size and impressive appearance appeal to those who want comfort, distinction and good looks. Its completeness in the things which contribute to costlier car advantages, is outstanding. Radiator shutters—side lamps—chromium plated bright work—four hydraulic shock absorbers—adult size roominess and adjustable seats are details only costlier cars have provided.

Just look over these values—all of guaranteed quality—for Friday and Saturday. And remember—we are right here on the spot to make good anything which fails to give satisfaction.

We are particularly proud to recommend the famous Sherwin-Williams line of paints and varnishes. By actual test and through long experience, we know them to be the best on the market.

Paint is easily adulterated. Nobody can tell much about paint by looking at it in the can. But a few months after it is applied, the super quality of SWP is apparent to anyone. We sell SWP because it lasts more than twice as long as cheaper paint—because it gives absolute satisfaction, retaining its clean, true colors to the very last—because it is the world's greatest paint bargain.

Texas and Texans

By Will H. Mayes

Electrical Output Increases

A few weeks ago this columnist stated that he regretted to report that Texas stood thirteenth in electrical output for the year 1927, the figures for that year being the latest he had seen. It is the business of friend W. C. Edwards of the Texas Service Information Bureau, to know the very latest statistics about Texas development so he writes to say that for the first six months of 1929 Texas has held the eighth rank in the production of electricity and bids fair to keep it up for the rest of the year. Every month of this year the increase has been 25 per cent over the amount used in the corresponding month of last year.

Texans are just beginning, too, to appreciate the advantages of a more general use of electric current, and in a few years the State will doubtless be the largest consumer in the country, leading in that as it does in almost everything else.

Texas Road Building

Texas lead the entire country in improved highway mileage in 1928, the number of miles being 2356. Kansas came second with 1753 miles and Arkansas constructed 1673 miles of highway. The enormous size of the state will keep Texas from being covered with public highways for many years, but the work is going forward at a very satisfactory rate. Many of the counties are constructing county and community roads of an improved kind, these in most cases being colaterals to the State highways.

Penitentiary Affairs

The committee appointed by the last session of the legislature to study and make specific recommendations as to the rebuilding of the Texas penitentiary system will submit a majority report favoring a location 'within 20 miles of Austin,' but without naming the exact place. A minority report will favor building a central prison plant on some of the State owned plantations near Huntsville or Houston. Legislators who are expressing opinions on the committee report are by no means in accord as to what will be best. The safest guess is that nothing is likely to be accomplished as a result of the committee's investigations, at least in the near future. Doubtless the old structure at Huntsville will be patched up a bit and Texas will continue its old methods of misjustice in caring for its prison population.

That Highway Patrol

The motor cycles have been bought for the fifty highway patrolmen who will soon be policing the highways. Judging from the newspapers about the first duty of the force will be to teach the bus and truck drivers that they do not own the highways of the state. There is much complaint that the drivers of these huge motor vehicles insist on using the middle of the highways with little or no regard for the drivers of lighter vehicles. The next legislature will have to take some steps to curb the fellows who have no respect for road ethics and may have to go to the extent of cancelling the licenses of those guilty of repeated offenses.

Junction Improvements

Junction, in Kimble county, has just built, or is completing, three churches and one courthouse, and evidently the people there intend to try to make the people good by law if they can't be persuaded to be good by the churches. Junction is a growing county seat, though, and growing towns are having to build new churches and public buildings to keep pace with their neighbors. The more generously a people support and use the churches and church buildings the less use they are likely to have for the courts and courthouses. But even though courthouses may be little patronized, the people want buildings of which they may be a bit proud.

San Saba's Real Builders

A San Saba correspondent, who evidently is not W. A. Smith of the San Saba News, says that all the major movements in civic progress in that town are to be accredited to the women and not the men, and that in the past year the work that has materialized is due to the activities of the women. While 'Billie' Smith busies himself writing his 'Son-of-a-Gun' prattle and attending press association meetings, Mrs. Billie is heading the women's auxiliary of the chamber of commerce and, with the help of various committees of women, is bringing about worth while things for the town, says the report. We repeat it—Billie didn't write that report.

Enlarging Creamery Plants

Palestine has a creamery built some while ago and thought then to be about all that a mere creamery needed in the way of a plant. Extensive repairs, improvements and enlargements are now found necessary. The wooden building is to be changed into a brick veneer structure, plate glass windows are to be put in, and the plant is to be modernized throughout. Practically every one of the first-built creameries and milk products plants in the state have had to be enlarged to handle the increasing business. The dairy business of the country is coming South rapidly and Texas will soon become as noted for its herds of dairy cattle as it has been for beef cattle.

Decatur Ships Milk

Decatur is shipping whole milk to El Paso in train load assignments, so the papers report. If El Paso needs milk, why shouldn't Texas dairies supply it? Just why El Paso doesn't encourage local dairying, at least sufficient to supply the city with milk is not explained, but as it does not, Decatur is to be congratulated for being able to keep El Paso from getting milk hungry.

Marfa's Improvements

Marfa, out in Presidio county, seems to be headed toward some worthwhile improvements. Plans have been completed for a modern hotel with 60 guest rooms, which indicates that Marfa has many visitors. A vote is to be taken on a $600,000 road bond issue, an indication that Marfa believes in good roads. A glance at the issue of the Sentinel, the local paper that contains this news, shows that one of the greatest needs of the town is some merchants who know and appreciate the value to business and to a town of modern advertising methods. A town seldom outgrows the progressiveness of its merchants and modern business progress is built about advertising.

Bank Accounts Increase

The report of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas for the week ending October 23 showed that 87 banks in 17 reporting centers had $49,754,000 increase in deposits over the previous week and $20,418,000 over the corresponding week of 1929. This is a fair index to the financial condition of the section.

The flurry, with accompanying losses in Wall Street, recently should prove a good thing for this country. For a time at least, it will release for use in this section vast sums of money that have gone into wild speculation in New York. The burnt child avoids the fire that but lately burned it, though the lesson of playing with fire is forgotten after a time.

Marlin Starts New Hotel

Marlin has long suffered for lack of sufficient hotel accommodations, but work there has begun on an 8 story, 110 room, hotel building which is to be completed by next June. Marlin has needed more hotel room to make it the health resort it has tried to become without enough hotel facilities to take care of the people who have wanted to go there.

Mineral Wells has completed its new hotel and it is said that it will be filled with guests from the beginning. The only way to build up a resort is to be prepared to take care of the resorters.

'So the lawyer showed you how to save $150 on your income tax? What are you going to do with the money?' 'Nothing, I had to give it to the lawyer.'

Miss Sarah Dossett, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Dossett, 1503 Columbus Avenue, Waco, and formerly of Cameron, was crowned Queen of the Planet Earth at the Texas Cotton Palace Tuesday evening in a gorgeous spectacle at the Coliseum in Waco, 'The Pageant of the Universe.' Miss Dossett is a sister to Stanton Dossett and a niece of Mrs. W. H. Henley of Cameron. She was crowned Queen Cybele by Arthur C. Upleger, as King Apollo the Sun-God.

The following description of Miss Dossett's costume appeared in Wednesday's issue of the Waco News-Tribune: 'Miss Dossett's grace of bearing and her dignity, inspired her role as queen with unusual distinction and charm. Her costume, representing fruits and flowers of the earth, was of white imported satin. Her train of white chiffon velvet, inner-lined with rose silk and lined with green satin, represented the four elements—air, fire, earth and water. A golden head-dress, jeweled with stones of topaz and aquamarine, typified rays of the sun and the sun theme was reflected in a high standing collar of gold lace also elaborately jeweled.

'White satin of the gown symbolized snow, and tulle in shaded blues and delicate greens suggested the char of the sea. Its filmy borders were outlined with sequins in colors of sea water. Hand made flowers in four shades of rose, centered with jewels, adorned the gown. Aquamarine gems and graceful grape-like clusters and golden leaves were embroidered upon the satin, while gorgeous red roses of jewels, sequins and rhinestones also ornamented it.

'From jeweled bracelets at the queen's wrists hung ropes of dew-drops, which fell to these ruby-petaled roses.

'A magnificent train created a fanciful background for Cybele's representations as queen of the planet earth. Blue of the sky was predominant in tints of rose were scattered about it in sequined pattern, and clouds in its nebular fashion. Where it fell from the shoulders there was a transparent insert shimmering with dewdrops of pearl and rhinestone. Rays of sun penetrating the clouds fell upon snow-capped, gray-blue mountains. White seafoam and rollicking waves of the sea intermingled with the design, and crimson sequins at the extremity of the train formed tongues of flame, which, as they leaped, were calmed by the sea. A white wig and slippers of white moire adorned with roses completed the costume.

'Queen Cybele, entering, was heralded by a fanfare of trumpets from the orchestra of Ligon Smith, who played music for the pageant from within a phosphorescent enclosure. Her Majesty presented King Apollo a golden globe, typical of the sphere over which she reigned, and he in regal gesture, reciprocated with a royal scepter, gift of the sun's vital power over the earth.

Miss Katherine Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atkinson, was duchess from Cameron at the coronation and her maid was Miss Doris Davis of Sharpe. Their escorts were S. B. Hill of San Antonio and Hubert Finley of Waxahachie.

Miss Atkinson's costume was of lemon colored transparent velvet was fashioned on straight lines with full flounces at the bottom of the skirt, and these flounces were lined with red satin. Her train was of red velvet, bordered and lined with cloth of gold.

The dress was richly embellished with embroidered and appliqued designs of cloth of gold, blue velvet, sequins and jewels. Crescent and star figures were typical of the court at which she paid obeisance, that of Queen Cybele of the Planet Earth. The train was elaborately embroidered in red, green, and gold jewels, with touches of jet to add character.

A tall headpiece, gold sequins in front and red velvet in the back embroidered in crescent and star design with red, green and gold sequins to match the dress, satin slippers of lemon color, and a wand of cloth of gold and sequins completed the striking ensemble.

Her maid, Miss Davis, wore a royal costume of turquoise satin and blue tulle. Her train was of turquoise velvet lined with cloth of silver and embroidered in a design corresponding to Miss Atkinson's, the central figure being yellow and having touches of green, red and gold. Her headpiece was a tight fitting one of silver, her shoes were in turquoise shade, and she carried a turquoise feather fan.

mums, the latter from Mrs. Jim Baskin's garden, were greatly admired by the guests.

Mrs. Denson served a salad course with hot tea and a date pudding and whipped cream.

LIONISM AFFORDS GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE AND BIG LIFE

By Ray L. Riley
President Lions International 1929-30

When a man takes the obligation as a member of a Lions Club he is accorded a full life. At the same time he assumes a vastly greater responsibility for the use of his life.

His additional opportunities will include the association, on absolutely equal terms, with the best minds and the highest characters in his community, picked with care for their qualities of manhood, and bound together by their common interests and ambitions for the community good.

He will meet with these chosen men he will grow to know them intimately, he will form among them some of the close friendships which will enrich all the rest of his life, he will become one of them. He will gain, thru working with them, a clearer understanding of the comradeship, the brotherhood, which comes from striving for identical ideals.

He will know the thrill which comes to every man who performs some unselfish service—the relief of pain, the removal of obstacles from the life of the unfortunate, the leading of boys and girls into healthy and happy work and play and safeguarding them from evil ways, the wise regulation of the community life which will protect each in his right to pursue happiness in his own individual way.

He will take pride in work. He will find a new pride in the happiness and prosperity of his community as his club works, year after year, to build it up to higher standards. He will be gratified by the recognition which his fellow townsmen will give him, through his club, for the thing it has done for the common good.

But the responsibility of the Lion increases with equal steps as his opportunities increase. He pledged himself explicitly to meet promptly once a week with his club, to pay his dues on time; to carry on his share of work in whatever communities may claim him; to be a loyal citizen of whatever land gives him shelter and opportunity; and to obey the rules and regulations of his club and of International.

Far, far beyond these stated things goes the responsibility which the member of a Lions Club implicitly assumes. If he did no more than meekly obey the few stated obligations to attend meetings, pay his dues and perform committee work he would be a good citizen and a good Lion so far as he went—but his influence would be small, and the good which would accrue either to the community or himself would be limited.

When he signs the roster as a Lion he gives an implicit pledge that, in addition to all the listed duties of a Lion, he will live in its entirety the life of a real Lion. Gradually he will find himself treasuring, more and more, the welfare of his brother Lions and of all with whom he comes in contact. He will begin to realize that they are all brothers, and that he is his brother's keeper.

He will guard jealously the good name of his community, and will plan and work for its betterment.

He Will Live Lionism
He will take a deeper personal interest in everything that touches the well-being of his town—its schools and churches, its playgrounds and its industries, the health of its people and their safety, and the spirit of neighborliness which holds the people together.

All these things, and many more will come gradually into the consciousness of the Lion until at length he will find himself actually living Lionism, all day and every day. Then indeed will he be a real Lion, an asset to his club and his town and an example to all.

For Lionism is not a thing to be put on like a badge when one enters a meeting, and to be laid aside like a badge and forgotten when the meeting is adjourned. He is not a Lion in the true sense of the word. He is a man who calls himself a Christian, but who limits his Christianity to attendance in church services on Sunday, and who all the week ignores the Golden Rule in all his relations with his fellow men.

Lionism is a real, living thing, conferring its privileges and imposing its obligations alike; and the real Lion is the man who recognizes and accepts both in the same spirit—the man who vividly lives Lionism all the time.

GREAT GAMES

Football and basketball are great games; in fact, we all like a game of any kind if it is well played. Those who become known as stars at any game have necessarily spent much time in practice and study of the finer points of the game. An untrained player would not think it possible to play a winning game against a star player, yet young men and women without a business training try to play the game of business with the result that in nine cases out of ten, they make a miserable failure. A thorough business training in one of our four colleges would reserve the order of failure to where nine out of ten should make a success. A former student of ours who has made a great success, told us the other day that the money he paid for a scholarship in our school had produced larger returns for him than any money he had ever spent.

Since our four schools have the exclusive use of the Famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping and no other business college is permitted to teach them, we can graduate a thoroughly trained stenographer, secretary, bookkeeper or accountant in half the time and at half the cost of other schools. Get our free catalogue, it will make clear to you how we can soon have you in a good position, or in business for yourself.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PARTY HELD FRIDAY

PASTORS OF OTHER CHURCHES JOIN IN WELCOME TO REV. HARDIGREE

The Christian church party at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening, November 2, was under the direction of Rev. J. P. Love.

Rev. P. T. Ramsey offered the prayer and C. S. Hayes conducted the song service. Mr. Love made a short talk followed by Rev. Hardigree, after which the guests assembled in the basement for a good time.

Miss Lorene Wade sang 'Love's Old Sweet Song,' which carried Mr. Love back to his 'Old Kentucky Home.' Mr. Ramsey introduced Mrs. Hardigree who very graciously acknowledged the introduction. Mr. Love continued the fun by introducing Mr. Hardigree who made a clever talk and closed by presenting Mr. Hayes whose talk was very much in point and was followed by a solo, upon the request of Mr. Love. 'The Eyes of Texas' was then sung for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Hardigree. Clever games and contests were enjoyed by all until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

We regret very much that Rev. Hutcherson and Mr. Gail of the First Baptist church were unable to attend.

Mrs. J. M. Bowman won high score and was awarded a French boudoir doll, and Mrs. S. A. Cottle, who was low, received a gift shop hat stand. Guest prize was a novelty decorated whisk broom.

Following the games the hostess served a salad course and coffee from trays that were centered with bowls of chrysanthemums. Callers were Messrs. James Howard Baskin and Mary Robinson.
